

KEEP 'EM FLYING

By Enrolling at

WEST VIRGINIA STATE COLLEGE

CIVILIAN PILOT TRAINING PROGRAM

SUMMER SESSION—JULY 15 to SEPTEMBER 15, 1942

FIRST Civilian Pilot Training Program approved by CAA for a Negro College.

FIRST and ONLY CPT Seaplane Unit in a Negro College

FIRST CPT Program to train a Negro College Woman Pilot on land planes.

FIRST CPT Program to train a Negro College Woman Pilot on seaplanes.

FIRST College Program to place a man and a woman Staff Member in an established unit of the Civil Air Patrol.

FIRST in the U. S. Army Air Corps with two graduates receiving Wings and Commissions in the first five fliers attaining officer's rank in the 99th Pursuit Squadron.

Staff of Licensed Experts and Experience Consultants—More than 100 trainees taught to fly—Seaplane Base on Kanawha river at south side of campus—Airport with Private Flying and two Commercial Airlines adjoining campus—meteorological and radio beam stations under government control.

COLLEGE CREDIT ALLOWED

CPT Program under Civil Aeronautics Administration includes 72 hours ground school in theory and 35 to 45 hours flight instruction—Seaplanes, parachutes, tuition, textbooks, and other equipment provided free—Other Civil Air Craft available for supplementary instruction and chartered flights at nominal rates.

Living Expenses on Campus $5.00 per week, payable 4 weeks in advance.

Requirements—U. S. citizenship positively established by a birth certificate or acceptable equivalent; male; age limits 18 to 27, inclusive; parental consent if under 21; 3 letters of reference, attesting to character and loyalty to the United States; physical examination essentially equivalent to that required for Army and Commercial Pilots—may arrange for physical examination under a CAA Medical Examiner in center nearest place of residence; adequate finances for all living expenses. Preference given to college graduates and upper classmen, particularly those with good backgrounds in Physics and Mathematics. Consideration may be given, in special cases, to applicants having completed 15 semester hours of college work.

Wire or Write

Division of Trade and Technical Education

James C. Evans, Director

