TEAM WORK MAKES THE DREAM WORK!

A Message from President Brian O. Hemphill

Dr. Brian O. Hemphill
President
West Virginia State University

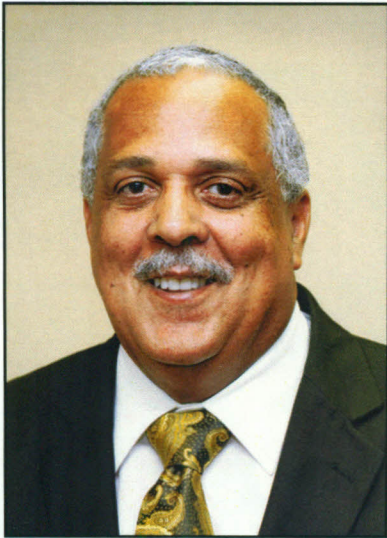

The "W" Club has an exemplary history of collaborating with the University to make great advancements for student-athletes, athletic programs, and Yellow Jackets now and for generations to come! The 2014 Homecoming celebration is the perfect time to reflect upon the exceptional work of the "W" Club. I am enormously grateful for the gracious donation of your time, energy, talents, and financial contributions. Your ongoing support has had a tremendous impact on the lives of so many students and on the entire campus community. We are deeply appreciative to the "W" Club for your tireless efforts and support of athletics. Such dedication is humbling, and I am truly grateful to have the full support of the "W" Club as we work to create a brighter future for our students.

West Virginia State University is fully-focused on excellence, accountability, and student-centeredness. In every way, West Virginia State University is committed to meeting the higher education and economic development needs of the state and region through innovative teaching and applied research.

Like the "W" Club, I, too, am deeply committed to the growth of OUR University. In the coming months, we will dedicate and open the new Gregory V. Monroe Athletic Complex at Dickerson Stadium. This state-of-the-art facility will greatly enhance the experiences and opportunities of State's student-athletes and athletic programs.

"W" Club members have been instrumental in recent athletic improvements. Such dedication is evident in the naming of the Coach Mark Cardwell Court, Dickerson Stadium, and the many "W" Club members whose names are etched on the Wall of Distinction in the D. Stephen and Diane H. Walker Convocation Center. Indeed, it is truly an exciting time to be a member of the "W" Club and the State family, and I know, together, we will achieve successes we have only dreamed about! Once again, thank you and welcome home.

GO STATE!

William "Billy" Lipscomb
President
WVSU National "W" Club

WELCOME

From The National "W" Club Association, Inc. President

Dear Friends:

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the 35th Annual WVSU National "W" Club Sports Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. This year's inductees continue the tradition of recognizing some of our most outstanding athletes. We will be forever indebted to former President Hazo W. Carter, Jr. for designating the Canty House as the official headquarters for the "W" Club in 2008.

Our tenth president, Dr. Brian O. Hemphill, has proven WVSU will thrive and continue to be an institution of excellence. There are several changes in progress as we approach Homecoming 2014 – renovations to Fleming Hall and the Judge Damon J. Keith Scholars Hall is completed. Renovations are in progress to the Greg Monroe Athletics Complex and Lakin Field. The "W" Club is enthusiastic about the many positive changes taking place at our alma mater.

Since the inception of the "W" Club our collective efforts have resulted in assistance being provided to many student athletes and programs totaling approximately $700,000 to date. Our success would not be possible without the help of alumni, faculty, staff, friends and others, who work tirelessly to support students and the West Virginia State University National "W" Club.

Sincerely,

President

A Brief History of the West Virginia State University National "W" Club

On a Sunday morning in the fall of 1975, the day after West Virginia State's Homecoming, a group of West Virginia State College alumni met in a Charleston hotel. The agenda was to brainstorm how to raise funds for athletics as well as restore athletics to the status of previous years. The open discussion was chaired by Attorney William Lonesome, an alumnus of the school and a distinguished leader.

After several hours of discussion, it was decided that a National "W" Club would be formed to raise funds for athletic programs.

A year later, in 1976, a meeting was held the night before the Homecoming game to formally establish a new National "W" Club.

The first officers of the National "W" Club, elected at the 1976 meeting, were: Dr. Frank E. Enty, president; Rupert G. Curry, vice president; Herbert B. Thompson, treasurer; and Herbert H. Henderson, attorney/secretary.

Attorney Herbert Henderson was assigned the responsibility of acquiring corporate status for the organization. The hard, long, pro-bono legal work of Mr. Henderson gained corporate status for the National "W" Club in 1978. The incorporators were Dr. Frank E. Enty, Rupert Curry, Herbert B. Thompson, William L. Lonesome and Herbert Henderson.

Washington, DC, was selected as the home base for the National "W" Club.

The "W" Club has two chapters, the Institute Chapter and the Shennandoah Chapter, which is located in Martinsburg, WV. Both chapters are instrumental in the success of the National "W" Club.

Herbert Thompson wrote the first by-laws for the National "W" Club.

In 1979, at a "W" Club Homecoming meeting, Mr. Glover Smiley proposed the establishing of an Athletic Hall of Fame. It was voted on and passed by the membership. The first Hall of Famers were inducted in 1980. They were Chester A. Burris, Mark H. Cardwell, Samuel A. Gamble, Vasco D. Hale, Adolph P. Hamblin, Louis R. W. Johnson, Earl Lloyd, Floyd Meadows, Roderick L. Price, and Marvin H. Richardson.

Past presidents of the National "W" Club are Dr. Frank Enty, Rupert Curry, Vandy Miller, Madison Broadnax, Henry R. Bellinger and Cornelious "Papa" Jones. William Lipscomb was elected president in 2008.

The WVSU Sports Hall of Fame, located in the Canty House on campus, was dedicated to Mark H. Cardwell, Sr., on October 13, 1990. The facility showcases academic and athletic triumphs of West Virginia State University athletes.

A special note of thanks to the late President Emeritus Dr. Hazo W. Carter, Jr., for officially designating the Canty House as headquarters for the WVSU National "W" Club.

Football Team Captain

3 Year Letterman in Football

Gregory D. Banks was born August 13, 1965 to Lewis and Willnette Banks in Williamsburg, Virginia. He developed a love of sports at an early age excelling in baseball, basketball, football and soccer. Greg was named to several youth All-Star teams where he was recognized for not only his talent but good sportsmanship. During high school in 1982 and 1983, he progressed into an All-Conference football player as a defensive back and also in baseball playing short stop/pitcher.

While attending Bruton High, WVSU Hall of Famer Bill Tose assisted Greg in becoming one of the Panthers best baseball players and introduced him to "State". When Head Baseball Coach Calvin Bailey extended Greg an invitation to play baseball, he was elated to be a part of the WV State (University) baseball program. In addition to playing baseball, Greg played an intricate part in producing one of "State's" best football teams in 1987, with a record of 8-1-1.

After obtaining a B.S in Communications, Greg was employed by the U.S. Government, Pentagon Washington DC., in the Information Technology field. However, his love for sports has never faded. Greg coached numerous high school baseball and football teams. He is currently involved in coaching his 3 sons in various sports. Greg says of his time at WVSU, "My experience at WVSU changed my life. I feel so blessed to have had the opportunity to meet all the wonderful students, faculty and staff at "State" that helped shape and form my life forever."

Greg is employed by B&T in Norfolk, VA and is the treasurer for the Hampton Roads Alumni Chapter. His love for WVSU and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity Inc., is second to none. He and his wife Tara have 5 children: Torrie, Angel, Joshua and twins Justin and Jordan. Greg also has a special niece, Nyjah. In his spare time he loves to fish, travel, attend sporting events but, more importantly spend time with his family.

WILFREDO C. COLLAZO Class of 1980

FOOTBALL

WVIAC All Conference Selection
Leading Defensive Player
1976 Honorable Mention All-WVIAC
1977 Secondary Team Captain

Wilfredo Cortes Collazo was born on March 11, 1957 in Hartford, Connecticut. His grandmother, Agripina Cartagena, migrated to the United States from Puerto Rico in the early 1950's and raised him from a little boy. He credits her with encouraging him to pursue a college education and to live a purposeful life.

Wayne D. Casey, Sr., WVSU Hall of Famer, played a huge part in influencing Wilfredo to attend West Virginia State where Head Football Coach, Colin Cameron, offered him a football scholarship. He made such an impact on Coach Cameron that he made him a starter at safety his freshmen year. He finished the season second on the team and fourteenth in the WVIAC Conference with 10.4 tackles per game and tied for second on the team in interceptions. In addition, he was selected a member of the WVIAC All Conference Team.

In 1980, Wilfredo earned his B.S. Degree in Business Administration and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army where he attained the rank of Major. As a college student, Wilfredo served as Basileus, Theta Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and was Mr. West Virginia State in 1979. He was also a member of the Pan-Hellenic Council, Student Government, ROTC, and The ARCH.

Over the last sixteen years, Wilfredo has had a successful career in sales as a Production Solutions Executive with Xerox Corporation and is a licensed Real Estate Consultant with Keller Williams Realty in Bradenton, Florida.

Wilfredo has given his time and talent back to the community by coaching youth basketball and serving as the Commissioner of the Seneca Ridge Basketball League. He enjoys playing golf and fishing in his spare time. He and his beautiful wife, Sandy (Tyree), reside in Ellenton, Florida. They are the proud parents to Tina, Tana, and Wil, Jr., and have six wonderful grandchildren.

WVSC National “W” Club Outstanding Junior and Senior Athlete of the Year 1984 & 1985

WVIAC Honorable Mention Basketball Athlete
1984 and 1985

Patricia R. King, born in Pontiac, Michigan on July 31, 1963, to Hollie and Minnie King, is the third to the youngest child of eleven. She graduated from Pontiac Northern Senior High School 1981, where she excelled in basketball and softball. Pat played on the first ever girls basketball team to win the district title with a victory over Waterford Township, coached by Joe Carr.

The late Coach John Dickensheets recruited Pat to play basketball at “State”, but upon her arrival Head Coach Edgar Randall, Asst. Coach Glover Smiley and Asst. Debra Anderson-Conliffe were her appointed basketball coaches. Pat was an excellent defender, great rebounder for her height of 5’6”, and did not hesitate to score when the opportunity presented itself. In her freshman and sophomore seasons she was selected by the coaches and players to receive the “Heart and Hustle” award for her hard work and dedication. In her junior and senior seasons, Pat received WVIAC Honorable Mention Recognition for basketball in 1984, 1985. In track and field, she was the Women’s Track Team Captain in 1984; WVSC Outstanding Middle Distance Runner 1984; WVIAC All Conference Women Track 1982, 1983, 1985; and participated in the NAIA Nationals Track Competition in Charleston, West Virginia.

Pat graduated from “State” earning a Bachelor of Science in Therapeutic Recreation and continued her studies at the University of Central Oklahoma, earning her Master’s Degree. She later returned to “State” and earned her second degree, a Bachelor of Science in Health and Physical Education. Pat is currently in her 19th year of teaching as an Assistant Professor at West Virginia State University in the Health and Human Performance Department. Pat is a certified volleyball and basketball official.

While attending WV State, Pat became a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Currently, she is a member of Grace Bible Church where she works with the children in Children’s Church. Pat has one daughter, Dakota, and two sons Dominic “Bo” and Dallas, two grandchildren KaLeah and Antoine, and lives in Charleston, West Virginia. She enjoys spending time with family and friends. She especially loves giving back and mentoring to the children of Charleston and the surrounding communities.

Member, First WVSC team to win WVIAC
Member, Undefeated Track Championship
Set School Record in 440, 880, and Mile Relays

Dr. Lynn Smith, a 1958 graduate of Spingarn High School in Washington, DC, entered West Virginia State College (WVSC) to pursue a career in printing. He joined the track team as a freshman and became a member of the mile relay team that placed first and second in every meet that year. That consistency helped the team go undefeated during the regular season and to become the first WVSC team to win a WVIAC Championship. At that meet, the mile relay finished second.

Upon graduation in 1962, he became a teacher at Cranston High School East, in Cranston, Rhode Island. In addition to teaching, he became the school's asst. varsity wrestling coach and its junior varsity coach. During a two year stint, those teams won two Conference and State Championships, a New England Championship, and a Conference JV Championship. Dr. Smith has served twenty-five years in senior staff positions in public education in Rhode Island and North Carolina; retiring as Executive Director, Auxiliary Services, Durham, NC.

He has been owner-operator of a staffing and training company, providing HR services to major New England corporations and institutions.

Currently, Dr. Smith is president of the Raleigh-Durham Chapter of the WVSU Alumni Association and senior board member of the Durham Alumni Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

Dr. Smith is married to Daphne Graves-Smith, a Fayetteville, NC native and graduate of Johnson C. Smith University. They are the proud parents of two children, Michael and Lisa, and six grandchildren.

Supporting our athletes.
Sharing our knowledge.
It's how we all win.

BB&T encourages the pursuit of knowledge on and off the field. When students participate in sports, they learn important life skills, including the benefits of teamwork and the power of preparation. That's why BB&T is proud to sponsor youth athletic programs across our community, and is committed to sharing more than 140 years of financial knowledge with our clients and neighbors. At BB&T, we're here to help make every goal achievable. BBT.com

The BB&T logo is a dark red square with the letters "BB&T" in white, serif font. It is centered in the middle of the page, overlaid on the image of the runners' legs.
