A Message from: President Jenkins

With great appreciation for the enduring legacy of the “W” Club, I welcome you to Homecoming 2018 at West Virginia State University. Your loyal engagement is impressive and cannot be overstated. As we celebrate the Yellow Jacket Nation this Homecoming, it is my hope that everyone will join me in taking a few moments to reflect upon the dedicated and outstanding efforts of the “W” Club.

Through your unwavering commitment to State, our student-athletes are provided possibilities they would not otherwise be presented. The “W” Club affords countless opportunities to assist our Yellow Jackets as they strive to succeed in the classroom and on the playing field. As you well know, every student-athlete needs a vibrant and strong support system. What the “W” Club offers each Yellow Jacket is extraordinary. The benefits bestowed to the West Virginia State University Athletic Department from the “W” Club range from scholarship and resources, to a robust and faithful community of fans for each and every sport.

Words cannot express the powerful impact the “W” Club has had, and will continue to have, on the lives of our student-athletes. Your contributions, including your generous donations of time, talent and treasure, can be felt across every level of the campus community. I cannot adequately convey not only my deepest appreciation, but that of the entire State family, to the “W” Club for your tireless efforts. I am humbled and grateful to have the full support of the “W” Club as we work to enhance the lives of our students and their families, now and far into the future. Once again, thank you and welcome home! GO STATE!

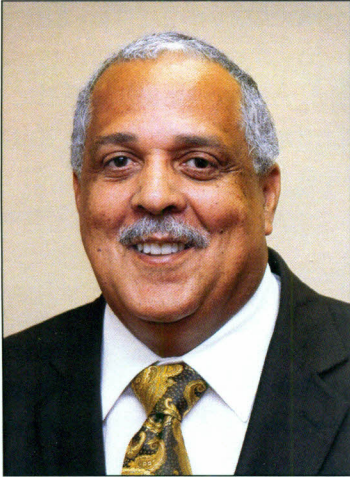

Best regards,

Welcome from:

The National "W" Club Association, Inc., President

William "Billy" Lipscomb
President
WVSU National "W" Club

Dear Family and Friends,

Welcome to the beautiful campus of West Virginia State University! Returning home for WVSU's Homecoming and seeing old friends is one of the most favorite times of the school year as you gather and reminisce about days gone by.

We have come together to celebrate our rich heritage and recognize the 2018 recipients at the 39th Annual West Virginia State University National "W" Club Sports Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Our collaborative efforts consistently identify some of our most elite and outstanding athletes by their induction into the esteemed Sports Hall of Fame.

The culmination of our work provides continued educational and athletic support to our student athletes and our athletic programs. With the support of our families, friends, alumni, faculty, and staff we hope to continue to exceed our expectations for generations to come.

We stand proud representing the National "W" Club of West Virginia State University, its students who attend our revered Alma Mater, and its many graduates and friends. We will continue to persevere as we move upward to excellence!

"GO YELLOW JACKET NATION!!!"

In the Spirit,

William "Billy" Lipscomb
President
WVSU National "W" Club

A Brief History of The WVSU National "W" Club

On a Sunday morning in the fall of 1975, the day after West Virginia State's Homecoming, a group of West Virginia State College alumni met in a Charleston hotel. The agenda was to brainstorm how to raise funds for athletics, as well as restore athletics to the status of previous years. The open discussion was chaired by Attorney William Lonesome, an alumnus of the school and a distinguished leader.

After several hours of discussion, it was decided that a National "W" Club would be formed to raise funds for athletic programs.

A year later, in 1976, a meeting was held the night before the Homecoming game to formally establish a new National "W" Club.

The first officers of the National "W" Club, elected at the 1976 meeting, were: Dr. Frank E. Enty, president; Rupert G. Curry, vice president; Herbert B. Thompson, treasurer; and Herbert H. Henderson, attorney/secretary.

Attorney Herbert Henderson was assigned the responsibility of acquiring corporate status for the organization. The hard, long, pro-bono legal work of Mr. Henderson gained corporate status for the National "W" Club in 1978. The incorporators were Dr. Frank E. Enty, Rupert Curry, Herbert B. Thompson, William L. Lonesome and Herbert Henderson.

Washington, D.C., was selected as the home base for the National "W" Club.

The "W" Club has two chapters, the Institute Chapter and the Shenandoah Chapter, which is located in Martinsburg, W.Va. Both chapters are instrumental in the success of the National "W" Club.

Herbert Thompson wrote the first by-laws for the National "W" Club.

In 1979, at a "W" Club Homecoming meeting, Mr. Glover Smiley proposed the establishment of an Athletic Hall of Fame. It was voted on and passed by the membership. The first Hall of Famers were inducted in 1980. They were Chester A. Burris, Mark H. Cardwell, Samuel A. Gamble, Vasco D. Hale, Adolph P. Hamblin, Louis R. W. Johnson, Earl Lloyd, Floyd Meadows, Roderick L. Price and Marvin H. Richardson.

Past presidents of the National "W" Club are Dr. Frank Enty, Rupert Curry, Vandy Miller, Madison Broadnax, Henry R. Bellinger and Cornelious "Papa" Jones. William Lipscomb was elected president in 2008.

The WVSU Sports Hall of Fame, located in the Canty House on campus, was dedicated to Mark H. Cardwell, Sr., on Oct. 13, 1990. The facility showcases academic and athletic triumphs of West Virginia State University athletes. A special note of thanks to the late President Dr. Hazo W. Carter, Jr., for officially designating the Canty House as headquarters for the WVSU National "W" Club.

⇒ Judge Richard E. Fields ⇐

Honorary Inductee

Municipal Judge

Circuit Court Judge

Staunch Life Time Supporter Of:

National "W" Club

Life Time Member Of:

WVSU National Alumni Association

Judge Richard E. Fields was born and raised in Charleston, South Carolina. He graduated from West Virginia State College (WVSU) in 1944 and entered Howard University School of Law graduating in 1947. He was admitted to practice law in the District of Columbia and in the state of South Carolina in 1948. After his practice began in 1949 in Charleston, SC, he was the first minority black to open a law office in that city since the early 1900's and the first to ever become a litigator.

When returning to Charleston, Judge Fields resumed his membership in historic Centenary Methodist Church. He has held all of the following church positions: treasurer, delegate, member of three World Methodist Conferences, elected to the General Board of Finance and Administration. His portrait hangs in the foyer of Centenary United Methodist Church.

Judge Fields was also on the Board of Trustees of Claflin College (University), and his portrait hangs in the boardroom at Claflin. The Richard E. Fields Scholarship at Claflin University was established in 1992.

Judge Fields, with several businessmen, established the Liberty National Bank. He was on the committee to establish the Charleston School of Law and presently serves on the Advisory Committee to the School of Law.

Judge Fields was a Municipal Judge for the City of Charleston, a judge of the Family Court of Charleston County, and Judge of the Circuit Courts of South Carolina where he served until his retirement in 1992. Another memorable accolade was on August 2000, when President William Clinton named one of Charleston's Central Post Offices for Judge Fields. His portrait hangs prominently inside the post office. Upon his retirement, the local Charleston County Bar Association, along with the South Carolina Bar Association, raised a greater amount of money than needed for Judge Fields' portrait. The excess funds were divided among Avery Institute, West Virginia State University, and Howard University. The check for West Virginia State University was presented at homecoming in 1992. Judge Fields has maintained a close relationship with West Virginia State University and has contributed monetarily to the ongoing activities of the University. He holds a life membership in the West Virginia State University Alumni Association and the National "W" Club. Judge Fields has always supported the National "W" Club financially and continues to aid the Club in all aspects.

Judge Fields married the late Myrtle T. Evans, a Charleston County public school teacher. They have two children: a daughter, Mary Diane Fields-Reed, a graduate of Fisk University, and a son, Richard E. Fields, Jr., a graduate of Howard University

⇒ Quewanncoii C. Stephens, Sr. ⇐

Honorary Inductee

Special Projects Coordinator

Assistant Coach

Counselor, Photographer, Motivator

Quewanncoii C. Stephens, Sr. is a retired Army Lieutenant Colonel and the Community Resource Supervisor with the Bureau of Juvenile Services of the Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation for the state of West Virginia. "Col. Que," as his West Virginia State University (WVSU) family knows him, is a combat veteran of two Vietnam tours. He is a Purple Heart recipient and during his twenty-three years on active duty has trained and taught throughout the world as an Armor/Calvary Officer, Special Forces ("Green Beret") Officer, Ranger and Jump Master/Parachutist. After his retirement from active duty, he was inducted into WVSU's ROTC Hall of Fame.

He holds a Commission as a Second Lieutenant from Florida A&M University, a Bachelor of Science in Social Studies from Campbell College (now University), and a Masters of Education in Counseling and Human Resources from Boston University.

On October 4, 1984, and during Homecoming Week at WV State College (now University), he arrived at State to take on the responsibility of Professor of Military Science. In 1986, having a personal desire to monitor many of his cadets in something other than the classroom, and having had the experience of Head Coach of the Fort Bragg "Packers" in North Carolina, he began serving State's football team in many capacities. He has worked as an assistant coach; Special Projects Coordinator; Counselor; photographer; team captain; bus driver; and team motivator. He can always be heard on the field in his loud booming voice cheering the team on and yelling for them not to jump off sides.

Col. Que, who has worked as the Executive Director of the WV Human Rights Commission and a member of the WV Parole Board, has played a vital role in influencing his community. He is an ardent member and past president of the St. Albans Rotary Club; twice past president of the Dunbar Rotary Club; and a Paul Harris Fellow. He has been recognized as a recipient of the Governors Civil Rights Day. He is a devoted member of First Baptist Church where he sits on the Deacon Board; a member of the church choir; and is the church's photographer. He is also a bass singer with the Martin Luther King, Jr. Male Chorus and a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

Quewanncoii C. Stephens, Sr. is the father of Eurydice Stephens Stanley, PhD, Lieutenant Colonel, US Army, Retired; Quewanncoii C. Stephens, II (former Mr. State) and Quinton Cy Stephens, both deceased. He is also a very proud grandfather.

Junior and Senior Year Co-Captain

WVIAC 1st Team All-Tournament 1980

WVIAC 1st Team All-Conference 1980

NAIA National Player of the Week 1980

Percy Vance Anderson was born on July 23, 1958 to Percy and Antoinette Anderson in Jersey City, NJ. He has two siblings Craig Anderson and Vicki Anderson Simons.

Percy's basketball journey began as an eighth grader at Public School 38 in Jersey City. Because of his outstanding basketball skills, he was recruited and accepted a full four-year scholarship to Saint Mary's Catholic High School. Under the tutelage of Coaches William Kuchar and Pete Romano and fellow team mate, Jimmy Boylan (NCAA Champion Marquette University/ Assistant Coach NBA Champions, Cleveland Cavaliers), he developed into one of Hudson County NJ's top scorers and rebounders. During his high school career, he was recognized for scoring over 1000 points and was one of the county's leading rebounders. In his senior year at Saint Mary's, Percy led his team to victory over the renowned Saint Anthony's High School basketball team coached by Hall of Fame's Coach Bobby Hurley, Sr. The Saint Mary's team went on to win the New Jersey State Parochial C championship.

Following graduation from high school, Percy worked out for Coach Curtis Price and was offered a four-year athletic scholarship to attend West Virginia State College. Working very hard, he became a starting player as a freshman. Under Coach Robert Maxwell, Percy, a true team player, led and inspired the team. His record places him as the 5th All-time Career FG% leader and 8th All Time Career Rebounder.

Percy received his Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice in 1980. His professional career has been with UPS Loss Prevention, Non-Profit Organizations, and Counselor for Juvenile offenders. He currently resides in Virginia and is a caretaker for his parents.

Percy is a member of Saint John Baptist Church, Williamsburg, VA where he volunteers in ministries to support homeless and needy families. He has one daughter Krissteina and four grandchildren, Unique, Nassir, Deja and Jerimiah.

WVIAC First Team All-Conference

Preseason Regional All-American

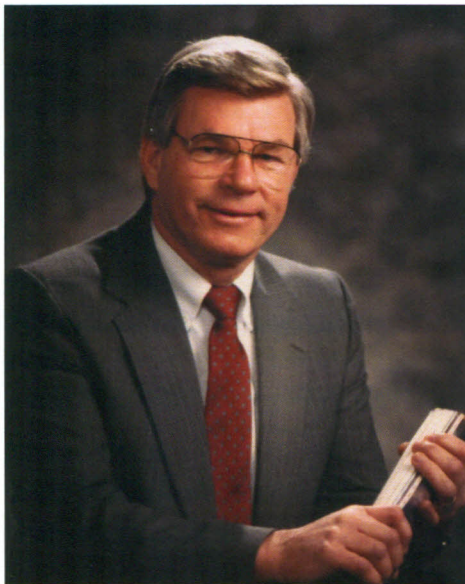

Damon Booker, son of Mary E. Booker and grandson of Charles L. Booker and Mary L. Booker, was born in Charleston, WV on December 23, 1976. He graduated from South Charleston High School in 1995 where he was a member of the 1994 State Championship football team. That year he received the Governors Citation award for Outstanding Athlete Dec 6, 1994, along with the Subway Honor Award for Outstanding Character, Excellent Attitude and Good Sportsmanship 1994. In addition to those awards he also was First Team All-Conference and First Team All-State as a Defensive Back in 1994. After high school Damon was invited to participate in the annual West Virginia North/South all-star football game where he met and made many lifelong friends.

Damon then made the decision to attend West Virginia State College and play football. While attending West Virginia State, Damon was a four-year letterman in football and was named WVSU Sophomore, Junior and Senior Athlete of the Year. In addition, during these years he was also selected WVIAC First Team All-Conference as a Sophomore, Junior and Senior. During his senior year, Damon was named preseason regional All-American. Damon's career rankings at State include tied 2nd in interceptions return for TD, 3rd in interceptions, 4th in interceptions return yards, tied 6th passes defended and 10th unassisted tackles. Damon takes pride in being a part of some of the best defenses that WVSU has ever fielded. He credits his coaches Defensive Coordinator Earl Monroe, Head Coach/Position Coach Carl Lee, and Offensive Coordinator Darnell Richardson for much of his success on the field, and also some great teammates that allowed him to be successful.

Damon knows that all of these accomplishments were only possible with the love, support and prayers of his family and close friends. He would also like to thank two very special men that have always been instrumental in his life Eddie Reeves and Benjamin (Duke) Bolton. Damon is now married to Jamie Booker and has four children, Makayla, Lawrence, Damon II, Devon, and resides in Columbus, OH. He has been employed by CSX Railroad for the past fourteen years where he works as an Engineer. In his free time he enjoys traveling, volunteering to coach the Reynoldsburg Junior Raiders football team as well as spending time with his family and friends.

Michael Stephen Curry was born to Samuel Curry Sr. and Flora Curry in Newark, NJ. The family moved and he was raised in Plainfield, NJ in 1969. He played baseball and football for Plainfield High School where he excelled in both sports. Michael starred as Quarterback and Defensive Back and was named first team All-Area as a Defensive Back and honorable mention All-Union County as Quarterback. Michael played in the first annual New Jersey North versus South High School All Star football game at Rutgers University where he was recognized for his talent as one of the top defensive backs in the state of New Jersey. He also starred in baseball and was an All Union county and All State honorable mention outfielder.

Undecided as to where to take his athletic talent for college, he was recommended and persuaded to attend and play baseball for Coach Calvin Bailey at West Virginia State as a walk on by his older brother Sam who was already attending there and playing football for them. Known by his teammates as Kid, Michael was a four-year letterman, three-year starter and Team Co-Captain in 1983. Michael played on the WVIAC and District 28 Champions teams in 1982 and 1983 and received special honorable mention on all WVIAC team in 1983. Michael still holds the record in career stolen bases at West Virginia State.

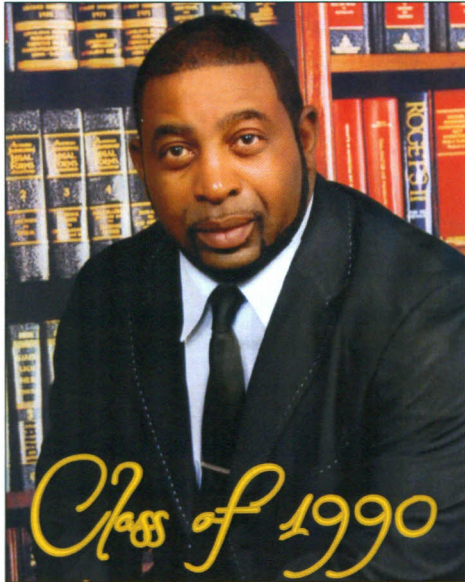

After obtaining a B.S. in Business, Michael was employed by AT&T in New Jersey. Michael was inspired to always reach high and had a love for project management, leading and managing teams which he has done across the country and internationally. Michael has provided his expertise for several Fortune 500 companies as a project leader and consultant as a Certified Project Manager Professional and Agile Certified Practitioner.

He is a member of the Virtual Alumni Chapter of Groove Phi Groove SFI, Y JC II. He also does volunteer work for Thirst for Knowledge, LLC. helping urban inner city kids.

Michael has three beautiful daughters Taryn, and twins Whitney and Taylor all college graduates. In his spare time he loves to play golf with friends, attending sporting events and spending time with his family. Michael resides in Piscataway, New Jersey.

Keith Franklin, was born in Fort Lauderdale, Florida to the late Henrietta Franklin and Clarence Harvey. He graduated from American Heritage School in Plantation, Florida in 1986 where he played football and basketball and earned All-County and All-State honors in both sports.

After graduating from high school, Keith was recruited by Coach Clifton Moore to play quarterback at West Virginia State College in the fall of 1986. In 1988, Keith joined the greatest fraternity in the world, Omega Psi Phi, Incorporated. In the fall of 1990 Keith received his degree.

His freshman year, Keith joined the WVSC Yellow Jackets football team as a quarterback and led the team in total offense and received Honorable Mention All WVIAC Team. His sophomore year was a year to remember as he led one of the greatest football teams in West Virginia State history to an 8-1-1 record and was the WVIAC Conference Champions. That year he was named the WVIAC Offensive Player of the Year and the Overall WVIAC Conference Player of the Year. He won Player of the Week 6 times that year. He was also named to the NAIA All American Team. His junior year was a repeat of his sophomore year as he was named the WVIAC Offensive Player of the Year and the Overall WVIAC Conference Player of the Year. He won Player of the Week 5 times that year and he led the nation in total offense for 4 weeks and again received NAIA All American honors. His senior year Keith broke several West Virginia State offensive records and became the WVIAC Conference record holder in total offense and was named to the WVIAC All Conference Team again.

Following graduation for WVSC, Keith decided to return home and teach mathematics in the Broward County School system in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, where he has been for 27 years. His greatest love of all, outside of his family, has been coaching and mentoring student-athletes for 29 years and several high schools in Broward County and has been a head coach at several schools for the last 17 years. He has placed over 300 student-athletes into colleges across the country and several players have gone on to play in the NFL and super bowl games.

Tyrone Smith, born November 23, 1959 in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, is the last of four children born to Juliaette and the late Isaac Smith. With his mother who spent over 40 years as a teacher and older siblings Anthony, Vernida and Kenneth providing guidance, Tyrone became a 1978 graduate of McKinley High School in Baton Rouge, Louisiana where he was a four-sport star athlete. He twice earned "Athlete of the Year" honors "Outstanding Field Man" in track and field and "Sixth Man of the Year" in basketball. Upon graduation from McKinley High, Tyrone, AKA "Smitty" to friends and family, received a scholarship to West Virginia State College.

At West Virginia State, Tyrone was a four-year letterman and a two-sport standout in football and track and field. In football, he played both quarterback and wide receiver. As a quarterback, he set both the single-game record for passing yards and the single game record for total offensive yards. As a wide receiver, he caught many passes that either scored touchdowns or led to drives that scored touchdowns for the Yellow Jackets. In track and field, he led his team to two WVIAC Champions. He won 1st place in the long jump, the triple jump, the 4x400 relay and 2nd in the javelin throw. He was named WVIAC "Track Athlete of the Year". Upon graduation, he held the West Virginia Conference Track Meet all-time record of 132 1/2 points.

Tyrone graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Administration Recreation Management. After graduation Tyrone moved to the Atlanta, Georgia area and for more than 30 years Tyrone has been a staple in the North Atlanta area's youth sports programs. He has used his many gifts to provide education, mentoring and guidance to many children through coaching youth programs. He opened the doors to his home to many and has been instrumental in sending many young kids to college. He has coached and mentored many athletes who have become professional athletes in the NBA, the NFL and MBL. He continues to offer his time, talent and treasure to the children in North Atlanta.

He is an active member of the Salem Missionary Baptist Church where is also a member of the Men's Choir. He is also a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc. Tyrone has been married to Kimberly Gordon Smith class of 88' for over 29 years. Their union has produced three outstanding student-athletes of their own, Tyrone James "TJ" Smith II, Tyra Janae Smith and Trey Jaleel Smith. All three children were student-athletes and have graduated college. Tyrone also received a precious gift this past year in the form of his first grandchild Taylor Corey Michelle Foster.

SALUTE

to the 2018 inductees of the West Virginia State University
National "W" Club
Sports Hall of Fame

September 26, 2018

William "Billy" Lipscomb, President
Of the National "W" Club Association

Dear Mr. Lipscomb:

I am honored to attend the annual "W" Club breakfast. As a former college student athlete in North Carolina, I know that raising funds for athletic programs is important for every university and essential for every student athlete. More so for WVSU because of its tradition, history and special place in the story of West Virginia. Good luck to you and all the student athletes of WVSU.

Warmest Regards,

Richard Lindsay

Dr. Vincent & Frances Reed

Congratulations

WVSU HALL OF FAME 2018 HONOREES

Dr. Reed, is a former 24-year veteran teacher who moved on to become Superintendent of DC Public Schools as well as many other successes.

Dr. Reed is a proud graduate of West Virginia State College. In fact, as a defensive tackle at Sumner High School, in Missouri, he was given the opportunity to attend West Virginia State on a football scholarship. While at WVSC, his talents as defensive and offensive tackle earned him a place in the Football Hall of fame at his beloved Alma Mata.

In 1981, he became Assistant U.S. Secretary of Education with former President Reagan's administration. He was in charge of federal aid programs for elementary and secondary schools. Dr. Reed was one of the highest-ranking African Americans among the Reagan administration.

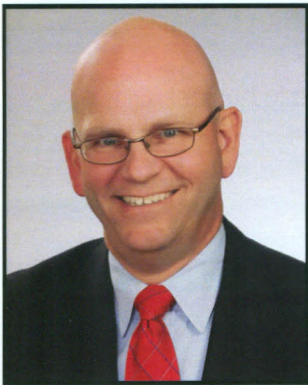

In 1982, he accepted the position of Vice President for Communications of the Washington Post, where he was in charge of the newspaper's public relations and school services programs. He was the only African American among the newspaper's 10 vice presidents.

In 2015, Washington Post Writer Jay Matthews said, "Dr. Reed was one of the best DC School Superintendents ever. Reed inspired a revolt against the school board that thought challenging low-income students was an elitist pipe dream."

He has been married to Frances B. Reed for 64 years. His career successes have been highlighted in numerous publications to name a few...The Washington Post, Jet and Black Enterprise Magazines.

IT'S TIME TO SMILE

Ghareeb Dental Group has been seeing patients in Putnam County since 1975 when Dr. Sami Ghareeb moved to the small town of Poca, WV. His first practice was a one-room office that was open one day per week. As his business grew, so did his family. Soon he and his wife, Kay, had five children and a thriving practice that was open five days a week. Dr. Ghareeb taught his children to work hard, and many followed in his dental footsteps. In 2005, his son, Dr. Steven Ghareeb, opened an office in South Charleston, and in 2007, his other son, Dr. Mitri Ghareeb, opened an office in Cross Lanes.

While the company continues to grow, the philosophy remains the same—we put patients first and treat them as we want to be treated. A family of dentists, Ghareeb Dental Group takes pride in serving West Virginia families. Continue the story by making an appointment with us today. We look forward to you joining the Ghareeb Dental Group family.
