Dr. Hazo Carter, Jr.
President of West Virginia State University
President's Office, Ferrell Hall
West Virginia State University

Dear Dr. Carter,

I want to thank you with meeting with me and some members of the faculty senate. I want to congratulate you on your commitment towards shared governance. I met with the executive committee yesterday. The members of the executive meeting are very glad in your decision in not perusing the creation of Provost Position. We were also glad to hear that the VPAA will devote his full time on the important academic issues that are affecting the University. We were also encouraged to hear that the VPAA will not be involved in any of his prior administrative duties.

We thank you for the opportunity to participate in this important shared governance function of the University. I'm looking forward in working with you in the future.

Sincerely,
