   Fundraising

   5.1 Fiscal Year 2014 Gift Report: Patricia Schumann
      As of October 31, 2013, $2,020,286 was received in gifts and pledges from 446 donors, tracking well ahead of last year in both dollars and number of donors. Since this is the second year of active solicitation of campaign pledges, we are beginning to receive payments on commitments that were received and reported during fiscal year 2013. This total, which is currently $17,945, is listed separately on the report.

   5.2 Capital Campaign
      Total committed $6,471,656, including all gifts and commitments since July 1, 2010.

   5.3 Performance of Appeals: Chris Price
      The Convocation Center appeal for bricks, lockers, and benches has been very successful with the purchase of 125 bricks, 12 benches, and 12 lockers for a total to date of $49,200.
      Inauguration (Presidential Scholarship Fund): we received 38 gifts totaling $12,275.
      The Early Fall Annual Fund appeal, which introduced the new giving societies, yielded 60 gifts totaling $11,020.
      The phonathon, which ran from October 14, 2013 to November 9, 2013, targeted alumni who had not yet made a gift this year. Most of the individuals contacted had no previous giving history. We received 82 gifts and pledges totaling $9,855.
phonathon is a great way to reconnect with alumni who have not been engaged, thereby providing an opportunity to update their records in the database.

5.4 Planned Giving Initiatives: Adam Neal
As a member of Leave a Legacy of Central Appalachia, WVSU participated in Wills Week in October. There was also a Planned Giving Seminar during Homecoming, which received great coverage in the State Journal. A copy of the article was distributed. Additional plans are in progress to promote planned giving.

WVSU Foundation

5.5 Gift Acceptance and Valuation Policies: Patricia Schumann
The Foundation adopted a set of Gift Acceptance and Valuation Policies at its semi-annual meeting in October. A copy was included in the Board of Governors agenda. The new policies included minimum endowment levels of $25,000 for an endowed scholarship, $1.5 million for an endowed professorship, and $2 million for an endowed chair. Funds established under earlier guidelines will be grandfathered in.

5.6 Scholarship Agreement Forms
Also, at its October meeting, the Foundation approved updated scholarship agreement forms. A copy was included in the Board of Governors agenda.

5.7 Foundation Annual Report
The Foundation’s Annual Report 2013 is being printed and will be distributed to donors who made a donation in the last 3 years.

5.8 Memorandum of Understanding
A memorandum of understanding between the University and the Foundation will be developed and brought to the Board of Governors in the spring for approval.

Alumni Relations

5.9 Homecoming Recap: Belinda Fuller
This year’s Homecoming featured several new events, including a young alumni mixer, a golf outing, a 5K Run/Walk, a tailgate sponsored by the academic colleges, and a family fun area sponsored by the WVSU Extension Service. On Friday evening, there were two sold out banquets, the Alumni Awards Banquet and the Kappa Alpha Psi 90th Anniversary Banquet. This year, alumni were able to register online for the first time.

5.10 National Award
WVSU was honored with an alumni engagement award during the Association for Public and Land-Grant Universities (APLU) annual conference in Washington, D.C. in November. WVSU was recognized for having the most significant increase in alumni participation in giving during fiscal year 2013.
