5. University Recommendations and Reports

5.1 BOG Budget Report for December
Mr. Jones provided an overview of the BOG Budget Report for December, as included in the Committee agenda and full Board book. It was noted that the University’s budget includes negative working capital. President Hemphill noted that the University is in the midst of a challenging time due to continued budget cuts from the State of West Virginia, lack of equity in peer funding, and the community and technical college separation and subsequent relocation.

President Hemphill provided historical information regarding the University’s cash position, as well as the factors impacting this position and strategies implemented to improve this position. President Hemphill highlighted the November 2013 Budget Efficiency Summit and the recommendations that have been implemented thus far and those recommendations that are still being reviewed. President Hemphill also briefly discussed the growth areas of online education and international student recruitment, which will provide increased revenue for the University moving forward.
Mr. Jones reminded the Board that the University received a $1.25 million allocation from the State of West Virginia on January 1, 2015, which will adjust the $13,000 deficit currently showing in the year-to-date section. The general revenue target is 50 percent and performance indicators in the report are based on that percentage. The University’s total income is only at 42 percent due to the quarterly allocation not being posted to the books when the report was prepared.

For tuition revenue, Mr. Swingle inquired that the amount should be at 50 percent. Mr. Jones noted that some third party entities do not pay in the same timeframes. Mr. Jones also noted the University experienced increased enrollment in categories that are discounted, and some students have not paid their full balance.

Mr. Jones provided the percentages for all of the areas and noted specific items for Academic Affairs, Student Affairs, and University Relations, which show those areas running ahead in expenses. Mr. Jones advised that athletic scholarships, approximately $391,000, have not yet posted to the President’s Office totals.

For the auxiliary accounts, Mr. Jones noted positive activity in the Student Union Operations account and the Housing account. Mr. Jones advised that the Dining/Food Service account should not be a negative and infrastructure improvements for the cafeteria were posted incorrectly.

Mr. Williams inquired regarding cost projections for new programs. Mr. Jones noted that, as part of the program proposal process, all programs must be self-sustaining or have funds set aside for their development.

Based on the budget discussion and in light of the audit presentation the prior day, Mr. Swingle requested quarterly reports to the Board regarding current ratios reflected in the annual financial statements audit. Mr. Salyers indicated an interest in reviewing additional details regarding the ratios from this year’s financial statements audit and updated ratios to reflect the University’s revenue and expenditures as of December 31, 2014.
