STUDENT LIFE

Looking back over our four years of college at West Virginia State College, we realize that life here has not always been integrated. We have witnessed many changes and were a part of them. Because of this, our experiences have been more beneficial and more fruitful.

As you look through this yearbook, you will see evidences of successful integration at West Virginia State College. You will see more than the integration we have in our classrooms. You will see a nearly total integration in all the ramifications of life at West Virginia State College. There are still some organizations and activities that do not reflect a blending of interests which is needed to aid integration of our inter-racial and international student body. But, with our student body largely composed of local commuting students, there are bound to be some areas of campus life in which they cannot find the time, nor the transportation, to participate. Even with this hardship, we have only a few remaining sparsely integrated activities.

On May 17, 1954, The Supreme Court of the United States ruled it unconstitutional to maintain segregated institutions for public education. That was ten years ago. Now, after those ten years; after knowing our college with all our senses, we present "TEN YEARS AFTER INTEGRATION..."

In Appreciation

We wish to extend our appreciation to two men who have helped through the years to make the ARCH possible.

Dr. Fannin S. Belcher
Advisor
to the Arch

Mr. Andrew H. Calloway

Director of Public Relations

DANIEL P. LINCOLN, REGISTRAR

Mr. Lincoln will always be thought of as a dedicated and interested person. As one of his friends and colleagues said of him, "his was a deep sense of responsibility and he always labored diligently, filling each day with his outpouring of physical and mental energy".

We did not know him as the teacher nor professor of history, but as the Registrar. Mr. Daniel P. Lincoln, will be long remembered. We will miss his familiar face behind the desk giving his final sanction of our years of struggle at W.V.S.C.

Our mathematics department lost an excellent teacher upon the death of Mr. High. He was an asset to our college and will be sorely missed.

MARH H. CARDWELL, COACH

There was a man among us and we knew he was a man. We knew him by his congenial manner, his gentle approach and his devotion to building keen minds in good bodies. We knew him because he let us know him through unselfishness with his time and energy.

We will miss this man and his familiar figure on the bench. But as we return to West Virginia State College through the years to come, we shall have reserved in our minds a place on that bench, that mythical bench from where all good and great coaches gather to watch the game.

Dedicated to the memory of John F. Kennedy

".... Let the word go forth from this time and place, to friend and foe alike, that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans — born in this century, tempered by war, disciplined by a hard and bitter peace, proud of our ancient heritage..."

John Fitzgerald Kennedy Inaugural Address, January 20, 1961

The living image of John F. Kennedy overshawdowed all other personalities during his brief, brilliant, Presidency. In death, his presence is still deeply felt by America's college youth.

In November of 1960, shortly after we entered West Virginia State College as freshmen, this vibrant young man was elected to the highest office of his beloved country. During the next three years he showed us how to carry the torch of leadership that had been passed to him. He became a man who renewed our faith in America's system of government, a man who showed his country that youth could break old traditions and assume responsibility — that youth could do the job. He called for the youth of the nation to go abroad and be of service to all men. And youth answered. In the same mind, he realized the need to act for the good of all American men. Again, youth answered.

To us, he was the Father of a New America from which "a new generation of Americans" shall "let the word go forth".

We dedicate "THE ARCH of 1964" to this great and wonderful man of our time, and to what he was to each of us. Let each of us live our days so that his will not have been spent in vain.

A friend to all

Dean Kelley

In a society of free people enjoying the blessings of liberty under the law, West Virginia State offers free and equal opportunities for all with the help of Dean James Kelly, Jr. He is familiar with the atmosphere of the college and is acquainted with the types of students who seek their education here. He meets situations with firmness but friendly manner.

We scarcely need to remark about the complexity of our life today, nor need we mention the scientific developments that will challenge us in the next few years. Yet each student comes to college seeking to have his known abilities developed and latent talents discovered. For the willing student, each day is an adventure in learning. Dean Kelly is responsible for helping develop these future leaders of America.

Dean W. P. Russell

Cooperation is essential for the transference of knowledge. This is the principle that makes the relationship between Dean Willie P. Russell and the students of our college successful in working toward the solution of the many problems that come up through the year.

Miss Russell must be aware of changes and improvements from all phases of life that can help to make a better West Virginia State College. The combination of the skills of Dean Russell makes our college one that is growing in its accomplishments year after year. Dean Russell is one of the guiding hands that make West Virginia State College.

Dean Ferrell

To Graduating Seniors:

Congratulations to you upon your achievement thus far and best wishes to you as you assume your responsibilities in the future.

In these crucial times when civilization is deciding between survival or extinction, may these words of Van Dyke always be with you. "Time is Too slow for those who wait Too swift for those who fear Too long for those who grieve Too short for those who rejoice But for those who love, time is eternity."

> Sincerely yours, HARRISON H. FERRELL Dean of Instruction

Assistant Dean Hoffman

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1964:

As I write this greeting, I look forward to the extraordinary honor your class will enjoy when Justice William O. Douglas of the United States Supreme Court steps to the rostrum as your Commencement speaker.

For 1964 represents the tenth anniversary of the historic Supreme Court decision barring segregation in America's schools and colleges. That decision, in which Justice Douglas participated, had a tremendous impact on West Virginia State College, making it possible for it to become a unique institution of higher learning, and making it possible for you to share in a truly significant experience in democratic human relations.

It is fitting that one of the most distinguished jurists in our history should address you at graduation. For you, the students, give our college life and meaning, and honors to it deservedly should go to you.

BUSINESS MANAGER BRENDA McDEW

As another year terminates, we look back at West Virginia State College and see her walls filled with the laughter and spirit of it's students. We are reminded of those who were proud to belong to it's friendly and homelike surroundings.

Many years from now, after our college experience, we may go pull from the stacks of old textbooks and papers the 1964 ARCH. We will then smile or even laugh for once again we will be able to recapture those memorable moments.

The Marching Band

HEAD MAJORETTE Carolyn Bennett

The Marching Band is always at hand to cheer the football team at all the home and most of the out of town games. Open to all interested students, it provides fun and good experience for "State" musicians.

After the football season is over, most of the band members join the Concert Band.

The Concert Band

The West Virginia State College Band, under the direction of Mr. Fisher, is composed of a group of young men and women who are interested in enriching the program of State Students through music. It encourages its members further development of their instrumental abilities.

One of the main events of the year for the Concert Band is the Spring Concert.

Personal help is always rendered to those in need.

R.O.T.C. Glee Club

The A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Miss Gladys Johnson, is a selected group of singers, who are chosen on the basis of vocal talent. It endeavors to present a variety of music to enrich the students of West Virginia State College and the surrounding communities. The Choir travels far and near for their requested concerts.

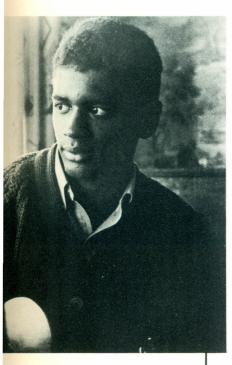

The R.O.T.C. Glee club, under the constant vigilance of their inspiring director Prof. P. Ahmed Williams, is composed of all male voices in the R.O.T.C. It instills discipline, cooperation and leadership. The Glee Club presents many concerts on campus and on tour of our country.

A Cappella Choir

Artist Series

Jackie Washington, folksong and blues singer, gave a recital on November 8, 1963, in the College Auditorium. He sang folksongs and ballads of England, Mexico, the American Negro, and the West Indies.

Grace Bumbay appeared on the Stage of W. Va. State College rendering selections ranging from opera to Negro spirituals.

This trio was formed at W. Va. State College in the Spring of 1962. They are majoring in instrumental music. They were awarded a scholarship to study with the Oscar Peterson Trio at the Advanced School of Contemporary Music in Toronto, Canada. They competed in the Collegiate Jazz Festival held at the University of Notre Dame in April.

Ethel Winter Dance Company does interpretive dancing at "State."

Karen Duke was presented to the student body on Friday, April 10, 1964.

The Student Council

The officers are as follows: Albert Calloway, Brenda McDew, Melvin Wright, Mr. Clark.

1964-65

STUDENT COUNCIL PURPOSE

The purpose of the Student Council is to provide student expression in all phases of college life—educational, social and cultural. The Council is to sponsor and organize activities and projects, help coordinate the work of other campus groups, represent the student body to the faculty, administration, and off campus groups. Primarily, of course, its purpose is to give the student experience in self-government.

Gore Hall Council

The purpose of the Gore Hall Council is to promote the general welfare of the men in residence in terms of their moral, decorum, health, and physical environment; as well as to promote a favorable atmosphere for the men to achieve high scholastic averages. Its objectives are:

- 1. To promote an opportunity and promote participation in demoncratic group government.
- 2. To encourage proper group habits for health and recreation.
- 3. To encourage group and individual social adjustment.
- 4. To encourage self-discipline, initiative, cooperation, and responsibility.

This working group of men is the working body of Prillerman Hall. Prillerman is the home of scholars and athletes, underclassmen and seniors. Prillerman Hall Council keeps the men actiated by having such activities as hall parties and room inspection. Late evenings find the lights of the dormitory still burning, as

Dawson Hall Council

The purpose of the Dawson Hall Council is to harmonize all matters concerning the welfare of the young women in the residence hall.

Some of its activities are Open House and a Tea Party for the women. Some of its objectives are:

- 1. To consider and co-ordinate all matters which pertain to the welfare of the women.
- 2. To encourage proper group habits for health and recreation.
- 3. To encourage group and individual social adjustment.

Hill Hall Council

Ann Brothers, Marie Hill, President, Shirley Williams, Doris Collier, Casandra Cooper, Marva Whaley, Anita Caddell, Joan Crawford, Barbara Freeman, Andre Yelder.

The purpose of the Hill Hall Council is to promote the general welfare of the women students in residence in terms of their morale, decorum, and their social environment; as well as to foster an academic environment favorable to successful scholastic a c h i e v ements. Its objectives are:

- To develop leadership among the women students in the residence.
- 2. To permit participation in democratic group government.

Pan-Hellenic Council

President Samuel Howell Secretary Joan Crawford

The Pan-Hellenic Council is the governing body of West Virginia State College Greek organizations. It is composed of a representative from each organization.

Striving to advance the best interest of the organizations the purpose of the Council is to promote greater harmony and cooperation among the organizations. This is done through monthly meetings, at which the problems of each Greek organization are discussed and solved.

The Council encourages high scholarship by awarding a trophy annually.

HISTORY: The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was founded November 17, 1911, at Howard University in Washington, D. C. The founders were three college juniors and a faculty advisor. They were Doctor Oscar J. Cooper of Philadelphia, Reverend Edgar A. Love, Bishop of the A.M.E. Methodist Church, Frank Coleman, and the late Doctor E. E. Just, advisor and

Professor of Physics at Howard University.

The founders discovered a large number of capable men willing to help Omega on her way. The next step was to perfect a constitution for this document was to be submitted to the President of the University, Doctor Wilbur .P Thirkield, for faculty approval.

Jeter Breaks Through

Yellowjackets 1963

"Fish," our hard driving Fullback, is on his way

Jackets on defense

Work hard State, get that man

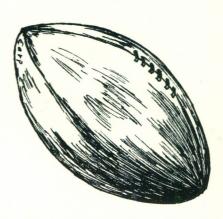

More yards gained for State

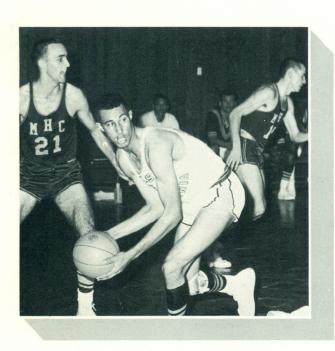

"Touchdown" Yellowjackets

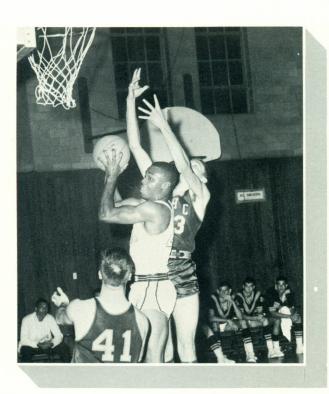

The big orders from Coach Nolley

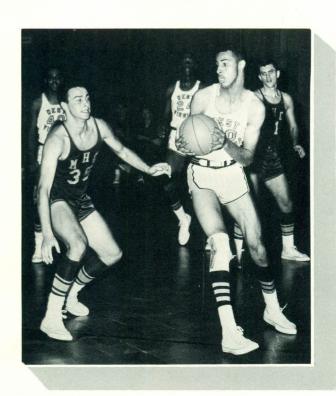

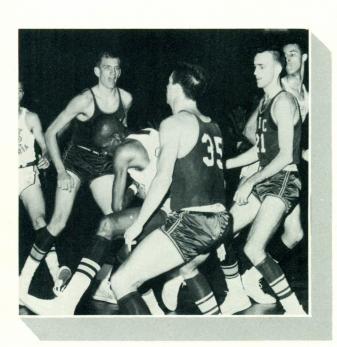

Slim moves and scores.

You can't stop Casey.

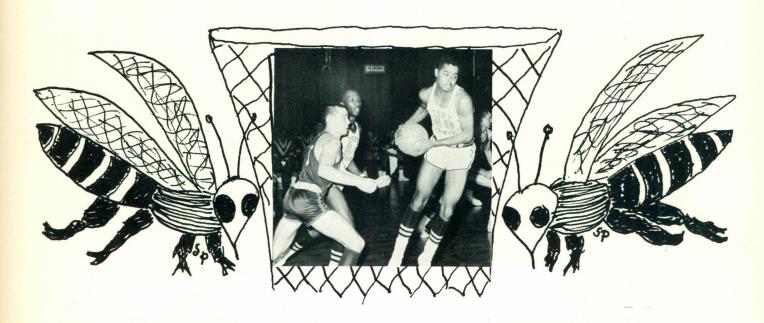

Look at that sweat!

Joe grabs another rebound.

HOMECOMING

Now we present the Queens

With this we won 2nd Place

ACTIVITIES

Bluefield was definitely BURIED

Miss Flapper and her Flappers

Will you please listen?

HILL AND DAWSON—WOMEN DORMITORIES

Each dormitory houses approximately 150 women students. Dormitory life is a mixture of fun and work. On most evenings you will find the young ladies busy studying or relaxing with their dates in the lounges.

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority welcomes guests to the Suite.

DORM

Please talk only during commercials!

Now the book says

So, he says to me

Who's lipstick???

LIFE

The Delta's are kept busy.

Records relax the mind.

Don't break no hearts!

The Snow Fight

The gang's all here.

CAMPUS

Saturday afternoon sports.

We'll try anything once.

LIFE

What's happening on the compound???

From football and snowfights to just plain old punching—anything can happen at State.

There could be trouble.

Prepare for a home run.

Life for Malvin Allison, a physics and math major, is often rather humdrum, except for the worry of exams and the joy of "roughhousing" with his two sons, Malcolm and Mark. His wife is Ellen.

FAMILY

Careful, not so much salt!

192

I'll find the answer one day.

The Howells, Margaret and Sam have just begun house keeping in Institute. Sam plans to enter the army in the fall.

Malvin takes time out to play with his sons.

A night out with the boys.

LIFE

Bobbie and Cheryl are among the newly weds at State. Bobbie is a senior majoring in Biology, while Cheryl, a junior is majoring in Art.

193

A simple chat before we journey on.

UNION

You're in the wrong place for beer.

THE UNION

After a hard day of classes the best place on campus to relax is the College Union. Pool, ping pong, cards, or just plain old "bull" sessions are always in evidence. Of course, the more "studious" State students retreat to the second floor lounge.

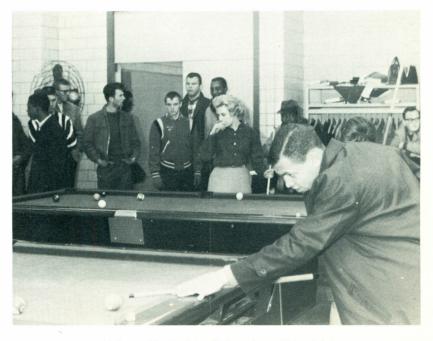

You'll never get that serve.

Haven't I seen you someplace before?

LIFE

He's good behind the Q, but what will he do!

The R.O.T.C. queens takes a bow.

The ROTC Ball is one of the most outstanding social events of the school year. The Cadets and Military Staff entertain Miss ROTC and her Company and other invited guests.

Roses for the queen.

Presenting Alpha Company's Queen.

Major Billups takes command of the dance floor.

Assemblies

The Political Science Club presented a Mock Republican Convention at which Henry Cabot Lodge, Ambassador to Vietnam, won out as the presidential nominee.

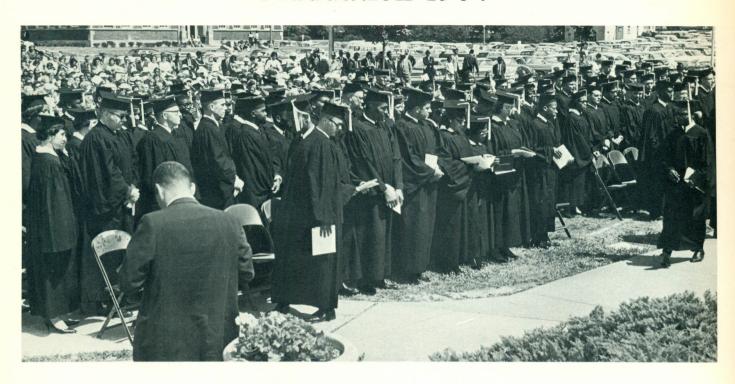

Richard Rafael Seppala, Finnish Ambassador to the United States, chats with students following his address at an assembly.

"And then we heard the Thunder"

State students heard both thunder and lightning when John Killens, author of this powerful novel, spoke at a Friday Assembly. Mr. Killens was one of the many dynamic speakers on campus this year.

Graduation 1964

To shake hands as a graduate is so much better.

MOM FINISHES COLLEGE
