"STATE" AFTER SEVENTY FIVE YEARS

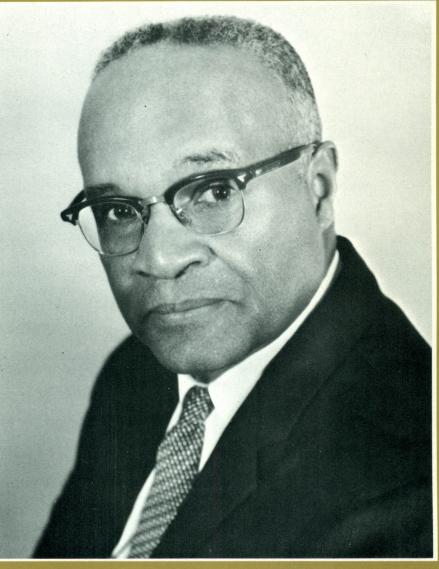

"As time passes on, like a March Wind, Many things change, the buildings, the land, and most of all our friends. But here on State's campus both the old and the new will linger in our hearts even after we are through" "Through the years around thee gather Crowned with love and cheer Still the memory of old state Grows to us more dear."

Fine Arts Building 1965

AND THE NEW

DEDICATED TO

Professor Ernest Reginald Armstead

The "Arch" staff proudly presents this year's "Arch" to a man who has served the college since 1927. For thirty-nine years Professor Armstead has taught all of his students not only the things found in a textbook but also subject matter pertaining to actual experiences. For this the "Arch" staff congratulates and dedicates its yearbook to a fine teacher.

IN MEMORY OF

Mrs. Janet Sue Jarrell Brown

Mrs. Brown was a twenty-four year old mathematics instructor from Chesapeake, West Virginia, who had recently joined the staff at the beginning of the 1965-66 school term.

Mrs. Brown earned her bachelor's degree at Morris Harvey College, and her master's at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The death of Mrs. Brown was truly an unexpected one, and a very great loss to her family, and the students here at West Virginia State College.

8 November 1965

William J. L. Wallace President

In 1789 Benjamin Franklin wrote a friend: "Our Constitution is in actual operation; everything appears to promise that it will last: but in this world nothing is certain but death and taxes."

In this day and time in higher education there appears to be a new certainty to be added to the two listed by Franklin. My experience indicates that each and every new school year brings new and different problems and responsibilities. Life at West Virginia State College reflects the changing times. This year we are involved in the struggle to determine the limits of the expanded role of the students of the college.

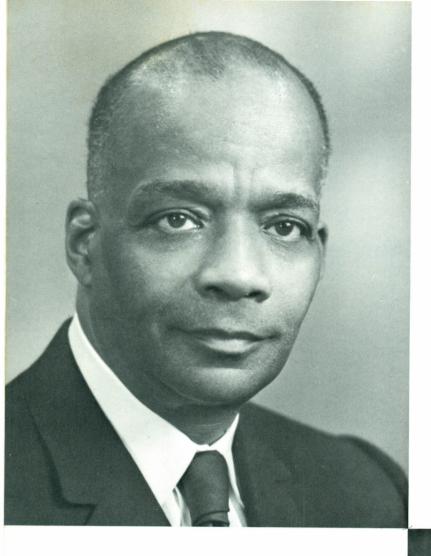

The concept of democracy on college and university campuses is being re-shaped and moulded to a different form. It is a certainty that students will no longer allow themselves to be quietly ignored and to remain as peaceful recipients of the information and wisdom handed to them by their elders.

I am happy that a new awareness of the responsibilities of all of us in the educational development of each of us is unfolding on this campus. May the Arch reflect the growing excitement with the great challenges of today. These challenges include the larger role of the student in the democratic process and a changing concept of liberal education which involves many cultures.

DEAN FERRELL

To GRADUATING SENIORS:

Education is for the many, not for the Few. Opportunities for service are more numerous and varied than ever before. Competition leads to greater success. Indeed, today the world is your stage. Each of you is involved in mankind.

Heartiest congratulations to you.

Harrison H. Ferrell Dean of Instruction

DEAN HOFFMAN

TO THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1966:

With the graduation of each class, I have mixed feelings—the satisfaction I share with each graduate as he attains this cherished goal and the less happy thought that many young men and women whom I enjoyed knowing will no longer be on campus. As you graduate, I identify ever more strongly with you for this year I also will advance to greater responsibilities.

In your new role as alumni you have the right to expect the best from those who share leadership at your alma mater. I hope that in my new role as Dean Of Instruction I will not fail you, and that you will always give your encouragement and your ideas.

May I wish each of you a happy and peaceful future.

Edwin D. Hoffman

DEAN W. P. RUSSELL

Dear Students:

In the future when you look back to the years you spent in college, your Yearbook will afford a tangible reminder of your campus life. Make full use of all college resources—academic and co-curricular—so that you may attain your highest potentialities. Your later retrospections will be enriched in proportion to the extent of your participation in all constructive activities of the college.

My best wishes go with you wherever you may be.

Very sincerely yours, Willie P. Russell Dean of Women

DEAN KELLEY

In the society of free people enjoying the blessings of liberty under the law, West Virginia State offers free and equal opportunities for all with the help of Dean James Kelly, Jr. He is familiar with the atmosphere of the college and is acquainted with the types of students who seek their education here. He meets situations with firmness but friendly manner.

We scarcely need to remark about the complexity of our life today, nor need we mention the scientific developments that will challenge us in the next few years. Yet each student comes to college seeking to have his known abilities developed and latent talents discovered. For the willing student, each day is an adventure in learning. Dean Kelly is responsible for helping develop these future leaders of America.

The 1966 ARCH staff has worked hard and diligently to take you on a journey through the archways of West Virginia State College.

The staff will remember all of the trials and tribulations had in trying to improve the format of the yearbook. The many hours of exchanging ideas, taking pictures, finding just the right words, and all of the many tasks shared in the learning of yearbook procedures will be reflected in the thoughts of those who make up the staff.

The staff hopes that you will enjoy your journey and that in the future you will continue to help and cooperate with the staff in order to make the next ARCH better than this one.

Believing that military service is an obligation of citizenship, and that the greater opportunities afforded college men for the study of military science place upon them certain responsibilities as citizens, the National Honorary Society of Scabbard and Blade was founded. Our objectives are to unite in closer relationship the military departments of American universities and colleges; to preserve and develop the essential qualities of good and efficient officers; to prepare ourselves as educated men to take a more active part and to have a greater influence in the military affairs at the communities in which we may reside; and above all to spread intelligent information concerning the military requirements of our country.

Scabbard and Blade is defined as a "National military honor society with local chapters, called companies; located in 131 leading colleges and universities which have ROTC programs". Membership is by election only. Cadets elected must be officers and gentlemen.

Functions given each year on campus includes a bi-annual blood drive for the college blood bank and an annual assembly held to enlighten the students on current World Affairs.

NEOPHYTES

Left to Right: Erskine Cade and Millard Blake

The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity was founded in 1911 at Howard University in Washington, D.C. The Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Theta Psi Chapter of West Virginia State College is a true example of the slogan. "Sons of Blood! Thunder!" Through activities and overall appearance the Ques represent the principles of scholarship and manhood to which they are pledged.

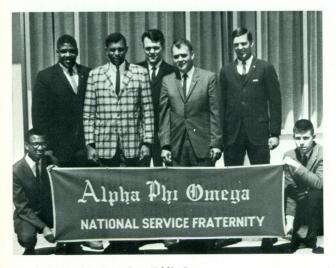

> Activities Founders' Day Delta-Que Sweetheart Ball

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

PLEDGES

History

The Soul Brothers of Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity were founded at Lafayette University, Lafayette, Pennsylvania in 1925. The Omicron Gamma Chapter represents W.V.S.C. and has proven itself through scholarship and principally service to which they are dedicated.

IVY LEAF CLUB

Purpose of the club: The Ivy Leaf Club is an interesting group of those young ladies seeking membership in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. The members of the club strive to uphold the five A's ... Attitude, Average, Ability, Appearance, and Activity.

Projects: Ivy Tea and Fashion Show

SPHINXMEN OF AΦA

John Featherson, Shepard Lockett, Patric Simmons

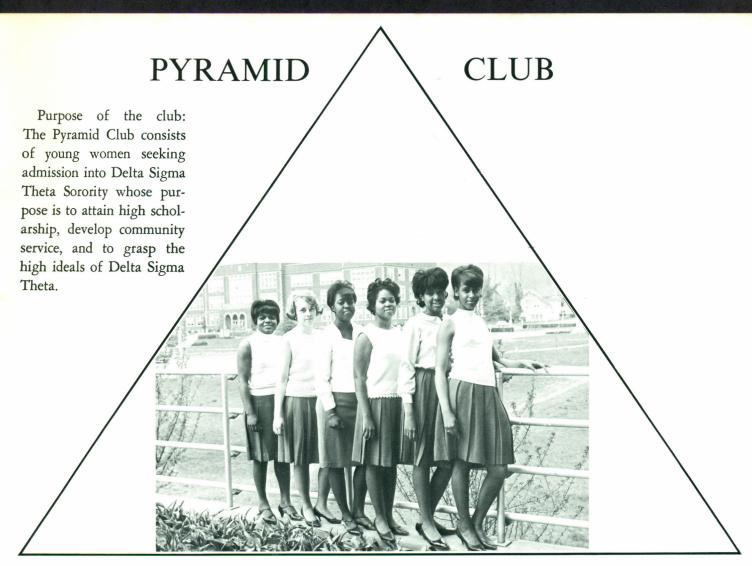

Purpose of the Club: The Sphinx Club is the pledge club of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. We join this organization to begin to look for the light of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. We live with hopes that one day we, too, will be brothers in Alpha Phi Alpha Land.

Project: Annual Song Festival

SCROLLERS OF KAY

Purpose of the club: The Scrollers' Club was organized December, 1919, Ohio State University by William J. Madison, and was named by Elias Tuggle. Its purpose is to indoctrinate the members with history, tradition, and customs of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity.

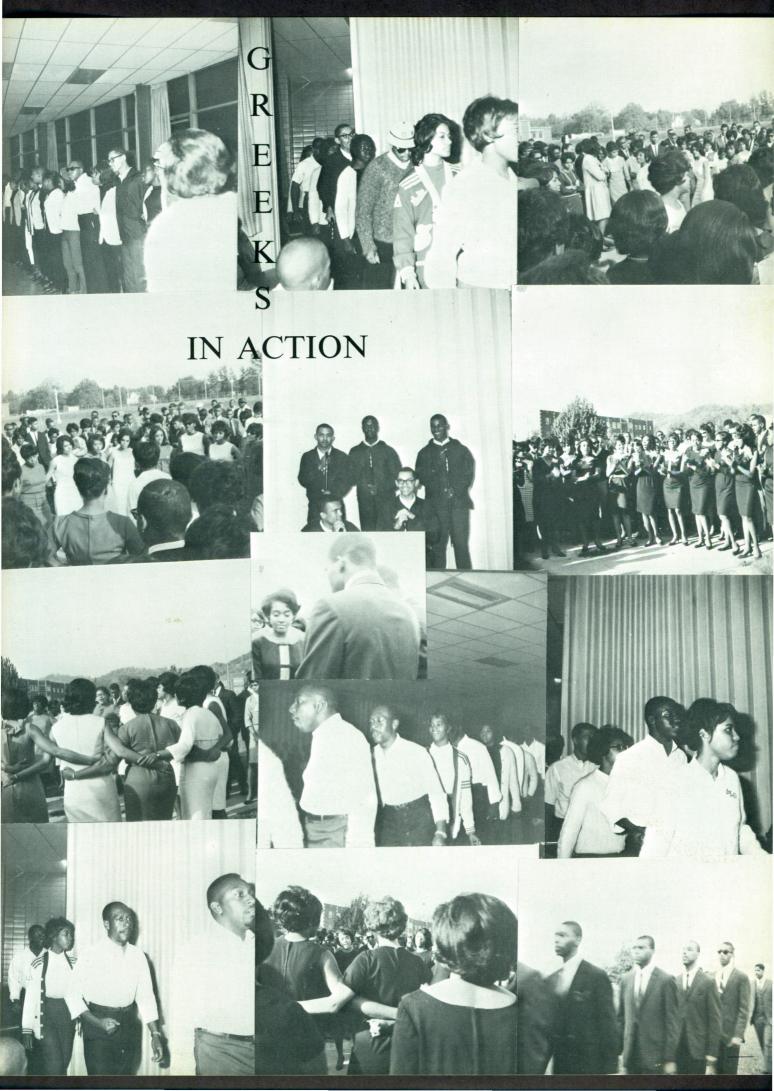

Yvonne Johnson, Andria Towel, Cheryl Braithwaite, Carol Tillman, Geraldine Moss

Purpose of the club: The Lampados Club is the pledge club to the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity. They, the little brothers, try to exemplify the four cardinal principals of manhood, scholarship, perseverance and uplift upon which the fraternity is based in hopes that they will someday be big brothers.

EDITORS NOTE

The school year 1965-66 has come to a close, and with it, many wonderful memories. For the freshman it holds his first day at West Va. State. For the senior it holds memories of his last days at "State".

The 1966 "Arch" has strived to preserve many of these wonderful memories in a production which we sincerely hope is the best production ever. It takes many hours of hard work and co-operation to produce a good yearbook and as editor, I would like to thank the staff for their many hours of hard work, and co-operation.

To each and every senior, I would like to congratulate you on a job well done, and a goal accomplished. Good luck, to you, my fellow classmates in whatever you do or wherever you may go.

''Nat.''
