Dedication

Willie P. Russell

The retirement of Willie P. Russell from the position as Dean of Women at West Virginia State College brought to a close 38 years of dedicated and inspired service to the institution and the young women which it serves.

A native of the state of Kentucky, she was the daughter of the president of Kentucky State College. Kentucky State Normal School, Fisk University, Teachers College – Columbia University, Simmons College, and Boston University are all parts of the scene of Willie P. Russell's education.

Prior to her employment at West Virginia State College, Miss Russell served as a high school principal. Beginning her services in W.V.S.C. in the year 1930, she served as Residence Hall Counselor. Upon assuming the position of Dean of Women in the year 1942, she further proved her worth to college and community by the breadth of her vision, her matchless dedication to the problems of young women and the college, and her sympathetic understanding and concern for all mankind. Her sympathy and help were available at all hours – day and night.

During her administration Dean Russell initiated many activities and projects designed to broaden and enrich the lives of the women of the College. In addition she served on many college committees which touched the lives of these same students – the Administrative Council, Admissions Committee, Orientation and Guidance Committee, and the Committee on Student Financial Aid.

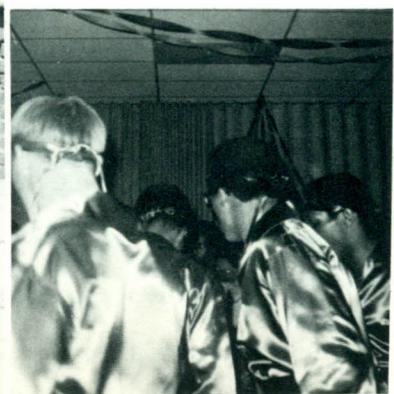

A strong force in her church, St. James Episcopal, the influence of this cultured and calmly determined woman made itself felt in the community through her membership on the Executive Board of the Family Service-Travelers' Aid, as well as her membership in numerous community organizations.

Upon her voluntary retirement, after devoted and fruitful years as Dean of Women at West Virginia State College, the college honored her by awarding her the honorary degree of Doctor of Pedagogy at its annual convocation on May 25, 1968.

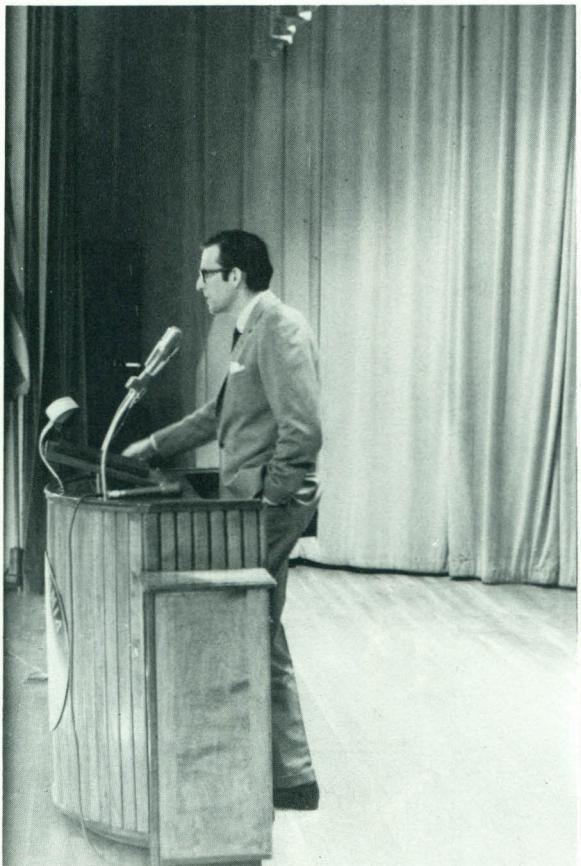

Although Dr. Russell has retired from the college, she has not retired from life. Time is now available for her favorite pursuits of travel, the arts, literature, and drama. Through her many community organizations her quiet force will still manifest itself in the community and the lives of all with whom she comes in contact.

To Willie P. Russell, a woman of many talents, abilities, and activities, but most of all a woman of tremendous importance to "State," the 1970 ARCH is dedicated.

Student Council

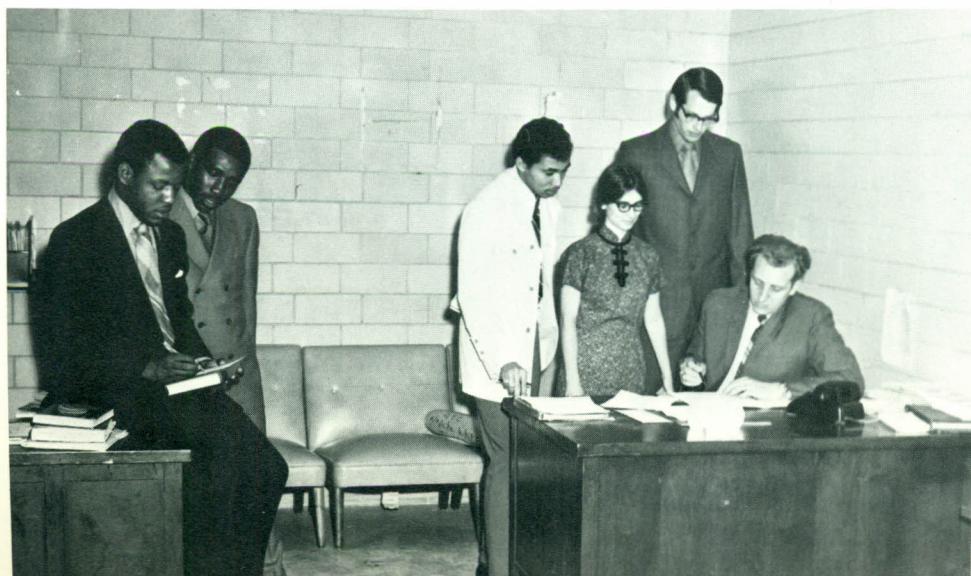

President Larry McCormick discussed plans with next year's president, Donald Graham.

The purpose of the Student Council is "To develop among the student body a spirit of cooperation, to encourage student initiative, to afford development through self-expression, self-control and leadership. Further, it aims at creating a high degree of cooperation between the faculty and students in matters of constructive welfare."

Student Court

The purpose of the Student Court is to hear cases resulting from the infraction of any of the rules and regulations of West Virginia State College.

Social Committee

Union Board

The Women's Senate

The Women's Senate consists of representatives from residence halls, classes, sororities and other organizations whose membership is composed of women. The Senate functions in cooperation with the Office of the Personnel Deans. Its purpose is to consider and coordinate matters which pertain to residence life and the general welfare of women students. By sponsoring a variety of activities, the Senate strives to create a purposeful, cultural and wholesome life for students.

The Men's Senate

The Men's Senate consists of representatives from residence halls, classes, fraternities, and other organizations whose membership is composed of men. The Senate functions in cooperation with the Office of the Personnel Deans. Its purpose is to consider and coordinate matters which pertain to residence life and the general welfare of men students. By sponsoring a variety of activities, the Senate strives to create a purposeful, cultural, and wholesome life for students.

Hill Hall Council

The purpose of the Hill Hall Council is to promote the general welfare of the women in residence in terms of their moral decorum, and their social environment as well as to foster an academic environment favorable to successful scholastic achievements. Its objectives are:

1. To develop leadership among the women students in residence.
2. To permit participation in democratic group government.

Dawson Hall Council

The purpose of the Dawson Hall Council is to harmonize all matters concerning the welfare of the young women in the residence hall. The objectives of the hall are:

1. To foster an academic environment favorable to successful scholastic achievement.
2. To promote personal adjustment to the problems of everyday life.

Chemistry Club

The American Chemical Society Student Affiliation was formed to provide fellowship between the student chemistry majors and minors and the professional chemists and chemical engineers and thus to aid the students in learning about their intended professions.

Math Club

The purpose of the Math Club is to encourage and aid those students in the field of mathematics.

Industrial Technology Society

The purpose of the Industrial Technology Society is to engage student members in various activities on and off the college campus. The Society sponsors annual events which afford a view of the Technological programs being advanced at West Virginia State College.

Law Enforcement Students' Association

The Law Enforcement Students Association of West Virginia State College was established in the spring of 1969. "Equal Rights for All - Special Privileges for None" is the guiding rule. The Association was formed as a fraternal group to further the advancement of educational, vocational and professional opportunities of the student within the Law Enforcement Program.

Omicron Kappa Omicron

This organization is a student member section of the West Virginia Home Economics Association.

The objective of this section shall be to create a desire in college students to better understand living conditions of community and family life and to stimulate action which will lead toward the realization of an optimum environment by improving living conditions.

Student National Education Association

The purpose of the SNEA is to give those students who are interested in teaching as a career a chance to become better acquainted with the goals and rewards of teaching.

United Nations Club

The United Nations Club is officially known as the Council on International Relations and United Nations Affairs. It is a "national student organization devoted to the creation of knowledgeable and informed opinion on issues of international concern; to the building of intelligent public support for the United Nations; for the principles embodied in its Charter and in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights; and to the advancement of peace based on justice and freedom."

Wesley Club

The purpose of the Wesley Foundation is to:

1. To promote a better understanding of the church in the college community.
2. To better inform the students of the contemporary issues of the day.

Newman Club

The Newman Club serves as spiritual outlet by which Christian students are able to develop an awareness of God and the solvent role He plays not only in their present school years but in the lives they must live in this dynamic and continuing era of the searching of mind and soul, dissention and protest, and the ever evasive elements of the Truth and Peace – both of which God is the Supreme Example.

What Is a Student

A student searches for truth. He finds it in everything with which he comes into contact. The answer to a problem eludes him in one instance only to be found in another because his mind stays opened to learn.

In his social life and campus activities he has a chance to put into practice the theories given him in the classroom. His own search for improvement and expression make him a stronger person, more able to adjust to his environment.

A searching mind, a working hand, and a willing heart are the requirements of a student. They are the methods that make for greatness in a student and a college.

At WVS, students spend most of their time tackling the work which is necessary for a college degree. Each college student, however, has little trouble finding some leisure time for diversion from homework to numerous social activities. Between The "Big O," itself, and the college, students have a variety of places to go to lose themselves in the crowd.

A popular State sports event, a State dance, or a private party are the most frequented forms of socializing.

Editor's Epitaph

As I finish the last page of the Arch, many thoughts pass through my mind. I think of State – the campus and buildings – the hallways I may never walk down again. I think of friends – the joys and sorrows we have shared and I am sad for I may never see these friends again. I am sad to be leaving State but I am anxious to see what the future holds.

I would like to express by thanks to Doris Jones, Belinda Wilkerson, Diane Cook, Bonnie Turner, Beverly Van Lanningham, Gwen Medcalf, Sandy Walls, Anna Marcum and Jerri Walls for their long hours of work. They made the publication of the 1970 Arch possible. I would also like to thank Mr. Jerry Walker and Mr. Joe Richardson for always being ready to help us when we needed them.

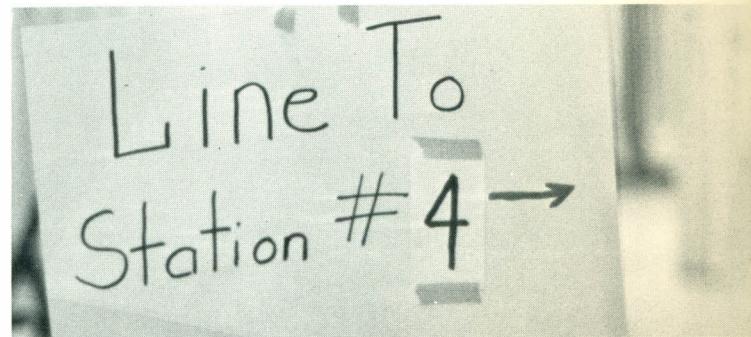

To those of you remaining at State – "State can only be what you want to make it."

When I think of yesterday I think of college where everything begins and ends.
Of morning mist and balmy wind.
I remember the mist touched my checks and the wind stepled my hair in the damp
during long walks to class.
I was groping in the muck among the other people.
Some of them smiled at me. It meant "hello."
That was all the time there was. But some days there was more than just a smile.
Sometimes we stopped to solve world problems.
Thinking was best in the morning before class.
Out on the sidewalk, crowded with people who were also thinking as we passed each other.
The faces reminded me of some experience or thought and faded from thought to thought,
each ending and beginning with a face.
I think of steady lonely rain and of quick showers to and from class . . .

I think of morning class and of my chair always waiting for me even when I didn't show up.

I don't know why I didn't go except that the day was more beautiful.

Some classes were better. In poetry every word stood out to me, black on white.

My mind was elated by images and experiences.

I think of it still more. Noons were darkened
by the cool dimness of the den.
I listened to the beat a while and to a friend, but again I listened to "sounds of silence" and found myself alone and crowded.

Remember the carefree times,
all too short and gone now.
And hours spent doing nothing, always waiting,
splurging my in-between times
a little here and there.

For me there was a special kind of loving:
Going from day to day,
moving always upward, fighting challenges defeating tasks,
some defeating me.
Always I came again.
It was for me
a special kind of loving:
living.

I think of light shows, of laughter and one-room trips; their popularity grows.
Of ballets, concerts and dramas, all completing the sensual communication.
And I was entertained.

But most of all I remember freedom and its best and worst.
Freedom to reach, but not necessarily freedom to receive;
freedom to think, but not necessarily freedom to believe.
"And my words like silent rain drops fell, echo the well of silence."
