1990 THE ARCH

"Entering Our Second Century of Excellence

Excellence . . . A Tradition

West Virginia State College The Arch 1990

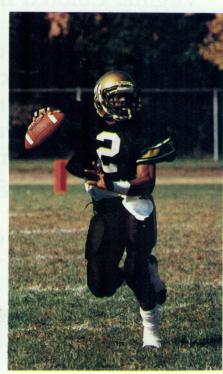

Since its founding in 1891, West Virginia State College has established a tradition of academic excellence.

Tell the truth and run. Yugoslavian Proverb

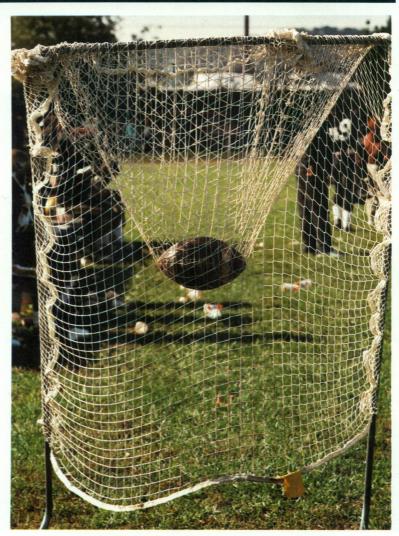

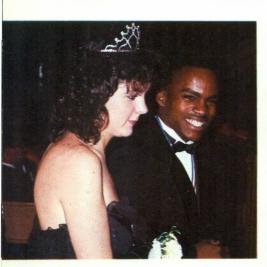

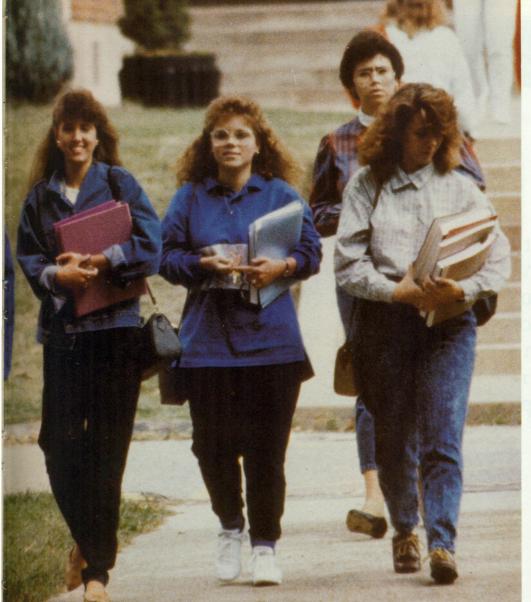

What a time! What a civilization. Cicero

Christened West Virginia Colored Institute, it earned a reputation as one of the finest black schools in the country. In 1929, it was renamed West Virgina State College and truly became a living laboratory of human relations.

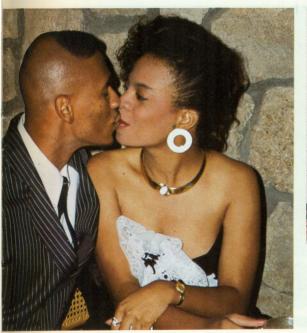

You can't expect a boy to be vicious till he's been to a good school. H.H. Munro

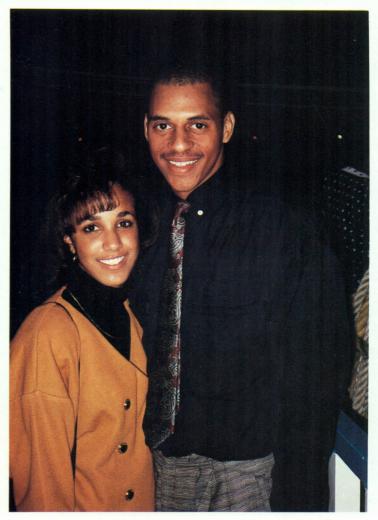

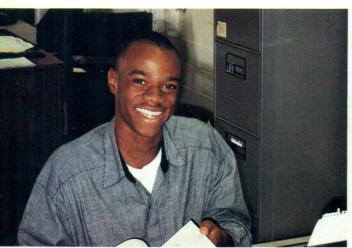

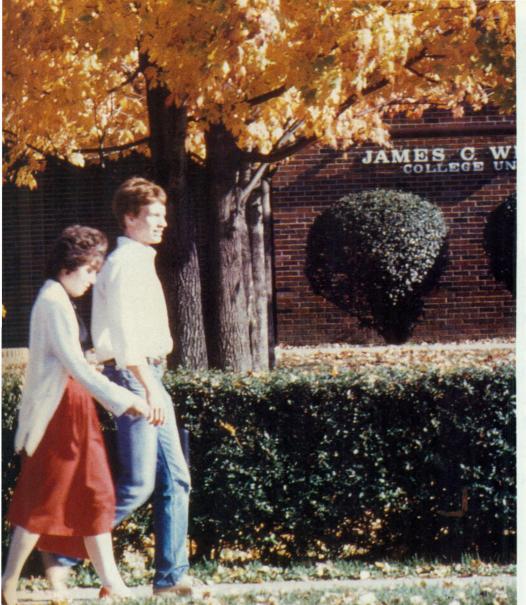

The perfect lover is one who turns into a pizza at 4:00 A.M. Charles Pierce

Building on its unique history, the college is poised for its second century of excellence, as the Centennial observance in 1991 approaches.

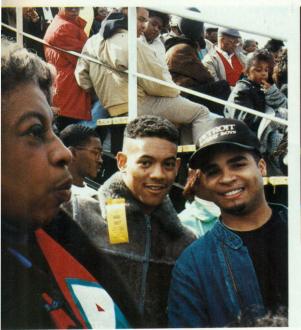

Fate chooses our relatives, we choose our friends.
Jacques Delille

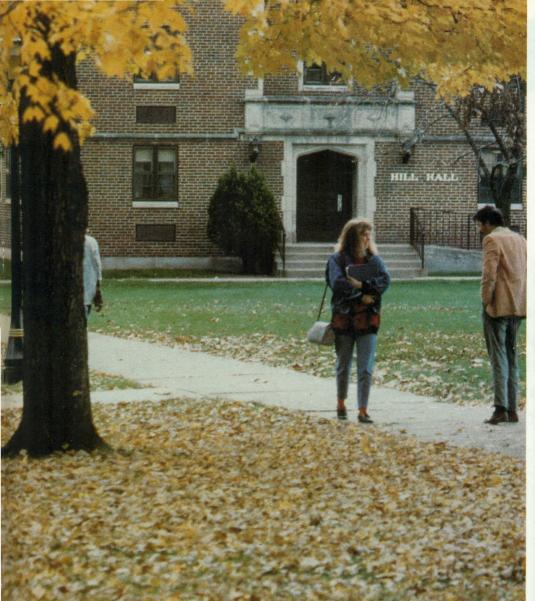

Start every day off with a smile and get it over with. W.C. Fields

It cherishes a reputation for safeguarding academic freedom, for being innovative in its scholastic programs, and for removing barriers to education and leadership for everyone.

What is love? 'tis not hereafter;
Present mirth has present laughter,
What's to come is still unsure:
In delay there lies no plenty;
Then come kiss me, sweet and twenty,
Youth's a stuff will not endure.
Shakespeare

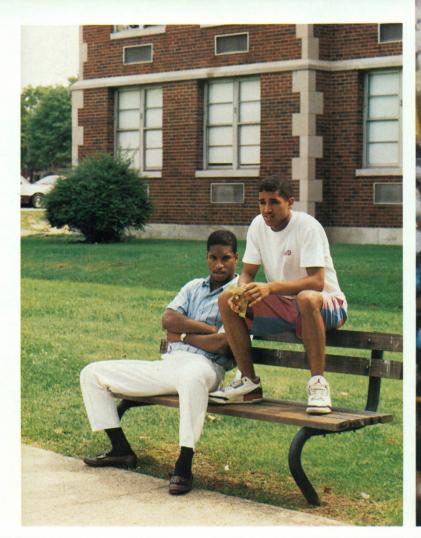

A swarm of bees in May is worth a load of hay:
A swarm of bees in June Is worth a silver spoon;
A swarm of bees in July Is not worth a fly.
Old English Proverb

It is indeed a vibrant and progressive learning institution, born of a proud past and poised to meet a challenging future.

To look up and not down,
To look forward and not back,
To look out and not in, and
To lend a hand.
Edward Everette Hale

Change is a necessary part of a healthy existence. A certain amount of continuous development is required to keep WVSC growing.

She moves a goddess, and she looks a queen. Alexander Pope

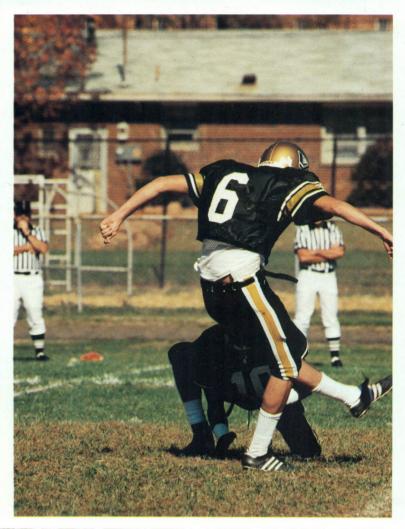

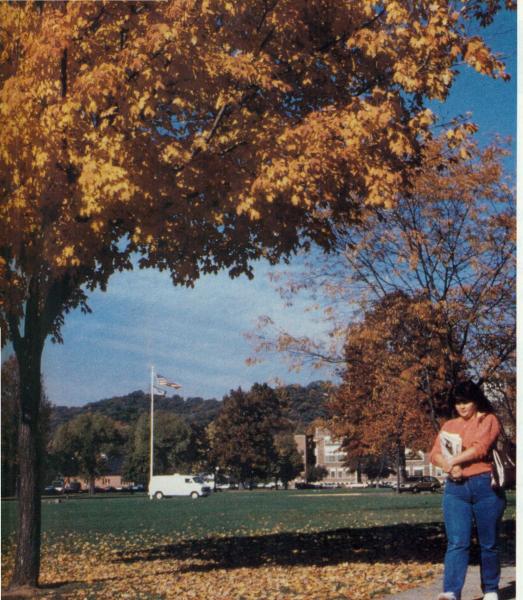

What's the use of worrying? It never was worth while, So, pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag, And smile, smile, smile. George Asaf

But as a college so tradition-rich as this one, any change must be carefully undertaken to blend into the pattern that the school has already set.

Can you imagine a world without men? No crime and lots of happy fat women. Sylvia (Nicole Hollander)

Sisterhood is powerful. Robin Morgan

This year showcases the issue, as many new faces and ideas are surfacing on campus. WVSC faces the challenge of "turning over a new leaf" in many ways, while keeping firm in its commitment to higher education and higher values.

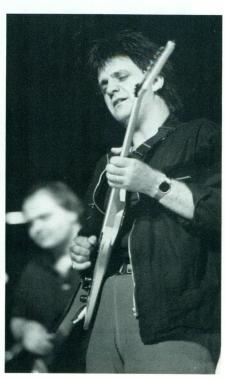

Science is his forte, and omniscience his foible.

Sydney Smith

With the gratifying feeling that our duty has been done! W.S. Gilbert

Blood Drive

Present joys are more to flesh and blood than a dull prospect,

John Dryden

Hi-Day

If we do not lay out ourselves in the service of mankind whom should we serve?

Abigail Adams

Cultural

Flutist, writer, lecturer, and television commentator Eugenia Zukerman served as West Virginia State College's Humanities Scholar in Residence for the month of March. Her on-campus activities included holding creative, script writing, and contemporary literature classes, conducting a masterclass with flute students, and performing at a Lecture-Recital concert.

Eugenia Zukerman

George Daugherty, better known as the Earl of Elkview, performed a medley of Irish tunes at a concert held in the Wilson College Union.

Culture is not life in its entirety, but just the moment of clarity.

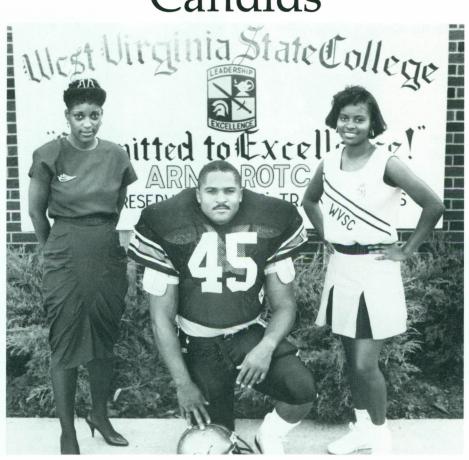

José Gasset

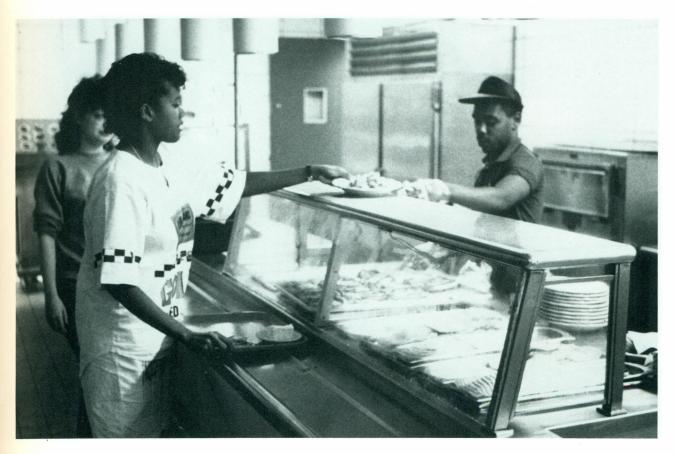

George Daugherty

Candids

The people are the masters.

Edmund Burke

Beauty in things exists in the mind which contemplates them.

David Hume

Friendship should be more than viting Time can sever.

George Eliot

Among animals one has a sense of humor. Humor saves a few steps; it saves years.

Marianne Moore

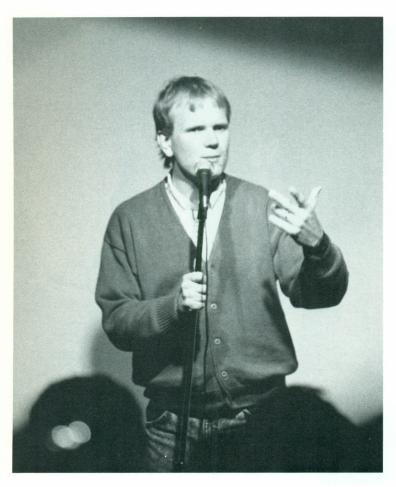

Look both ways, for the road to knowledge of the stars leads through the atom.

Sir Arthur Eddington

A comedian can only last till he either takes himself serious or his audience takes him serious.

Will Rogers

Style is the dress of thoughts.

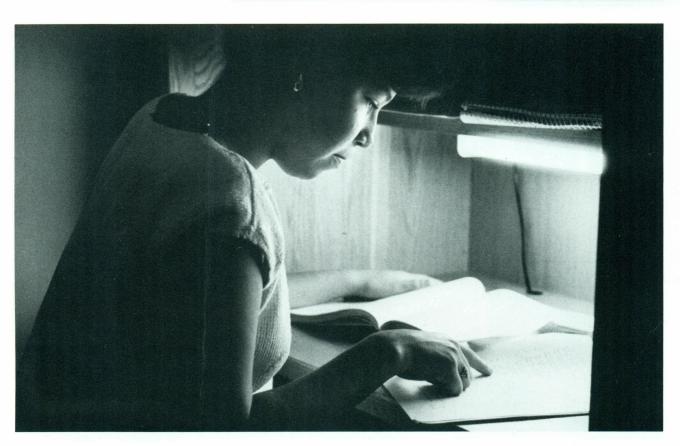

Philip Stanhope

We had the period of youth sacred to education, and the period of maturity, when the physical forces begin to flag, equally sacred to case and agreeable to relaxation.

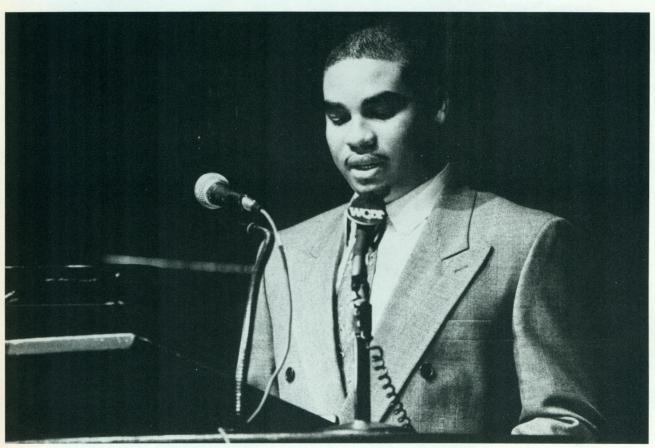

Edward Bellamy

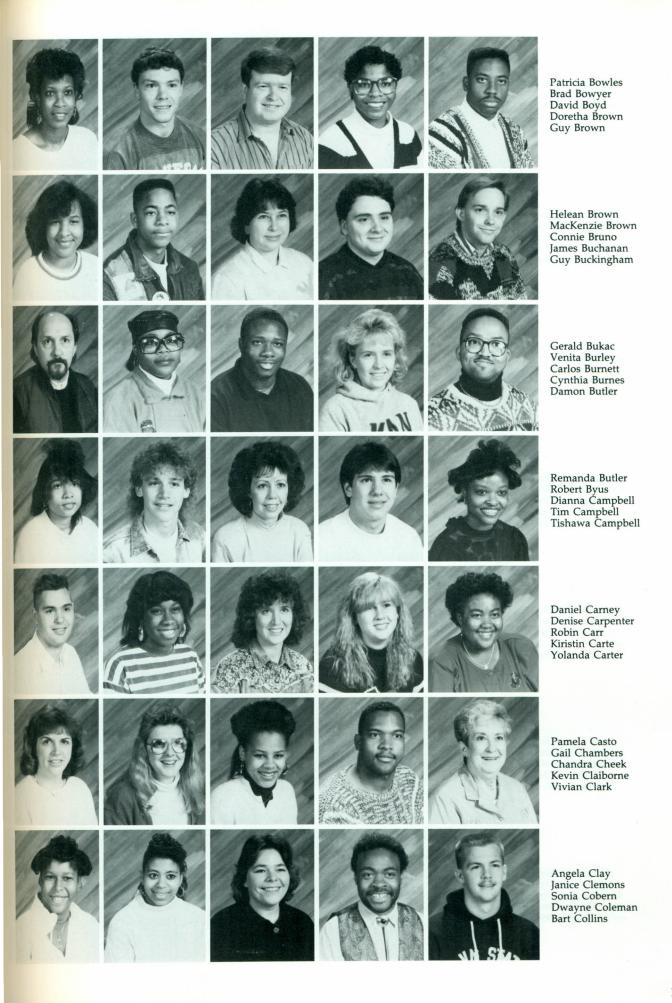

The superior man is modest in his speech.

Fun

Everything comes if a man will only wait.

Benjamin Disraeli

Serene, I fold my hands and wait, Nor care for wind, nor tide, nor sea; I rave no more 'gainst time or fate, For lo! My our shall come to me.

John Burroughs

No time like the present.

Mary Manley

And killing time is perhaps the essence of comedy, just as the essence of tragedy is killing eternity.

Miguel de Unamuno

Patience is the best remedy for every trouble.

Titus Platus

Familiar Faces

I am a most superior person.

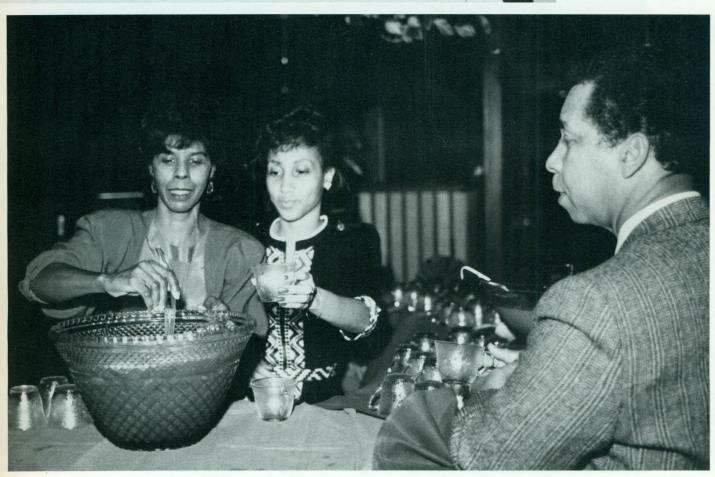

Anonymous

A brave world, Sir, full of religion, knavery, and change: we shall shortly see better days.

Aphra Behn

Gloomy Orion and the Dog are veiled; and hushed the shrunken seas; The person in the Spanish cape tries to sit on Sweeney's knees.

George Eliot

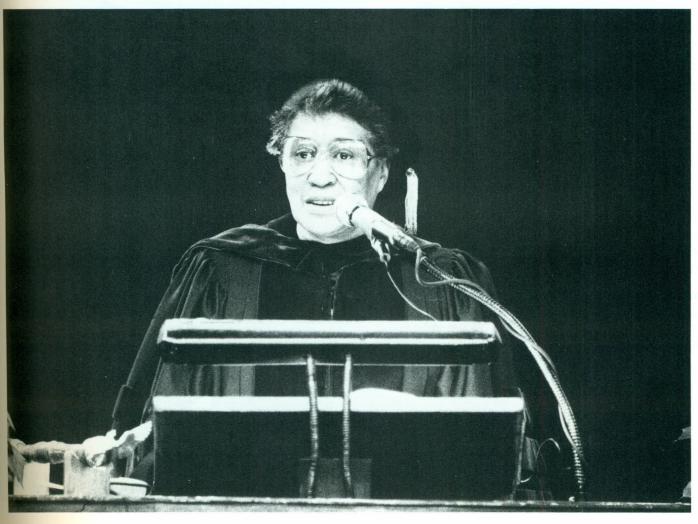

To see and be seen, in heaps they run; Some to undo, and some to be undone.

John Dryden

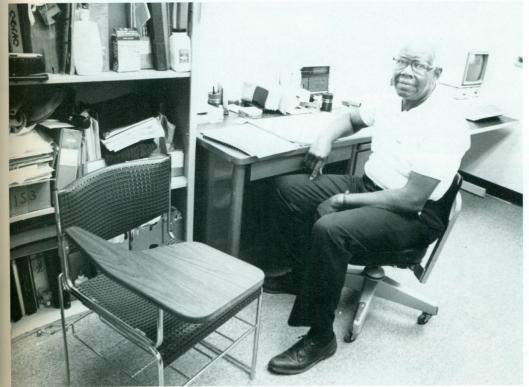

O was sone Pow'r the giftie gie us to see oursels as others see us! It wad frae mony a blunder fre us, and foolish notion.

Robert Burns

What time he can spare from the adornment from the person he devotes to the neglect of his duties.

William Thompson

Familiar Faces

The magic of a face. Thomas Carew

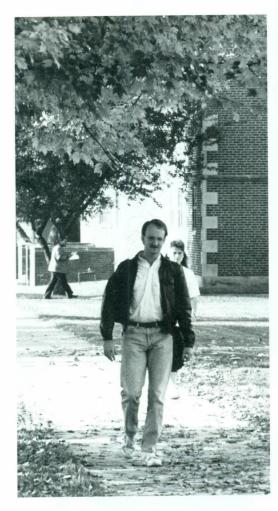

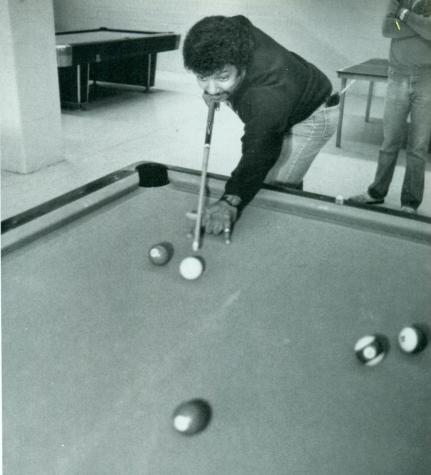

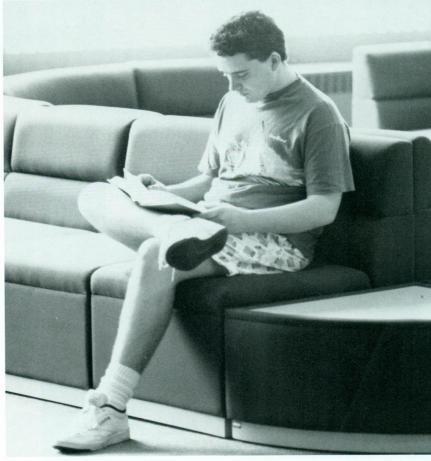

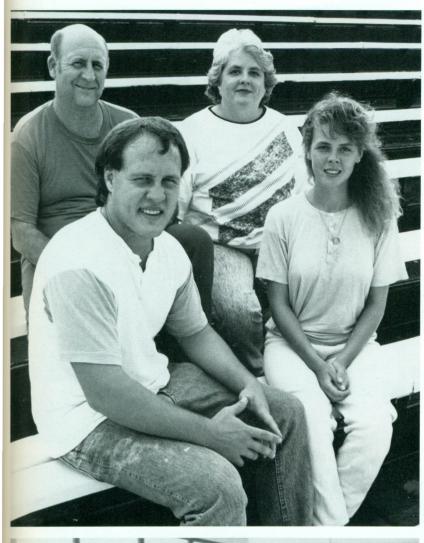

The apparition of these faces in the crowd; Petals on a wet, black bough. Ezra Pound

One half of the world cannot understand the pleasures of the other. Jane Austen

New things are made familiar, and familiar things are made new.

Johnson

A little work, a little play, too keep us going - and so, good day! Trilby

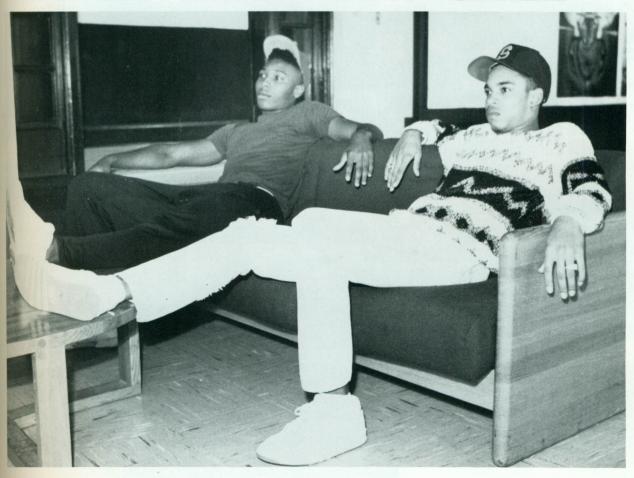

First the work . . .

All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. Proverbs

Then the fun.

Familiar Places

A place for everything and everything in its place.

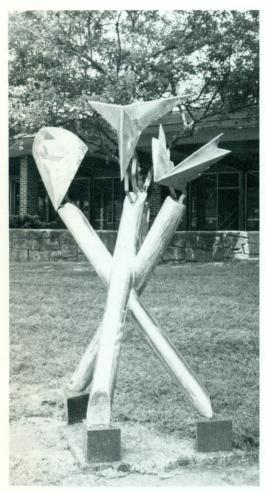

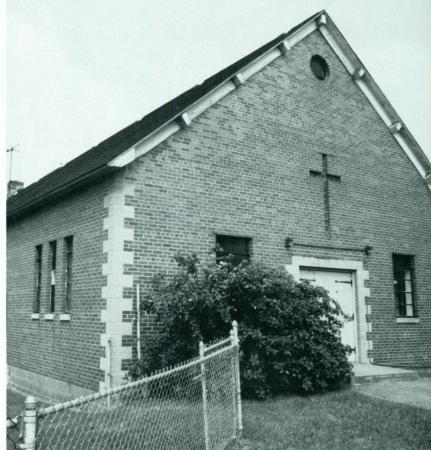

Do all the good you can, By all the means you can, In all the ways you can, In all the places you can, At all the times you can, To all the people you can, As long as ever you can.

This is the place!

Brigham Young

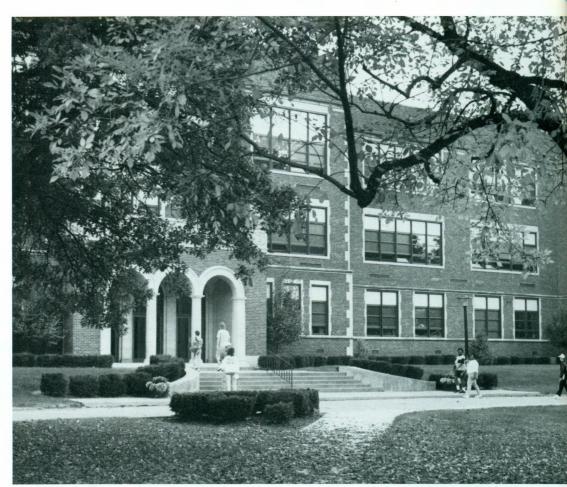

If a man aspires to the highest place, it is no dishonor to him to halt at the second, or even at the third.

What place is this? Where are we now?

Carl Sandburg

There is no one

Until we reach the place where they have gone.

The Song of the Harper

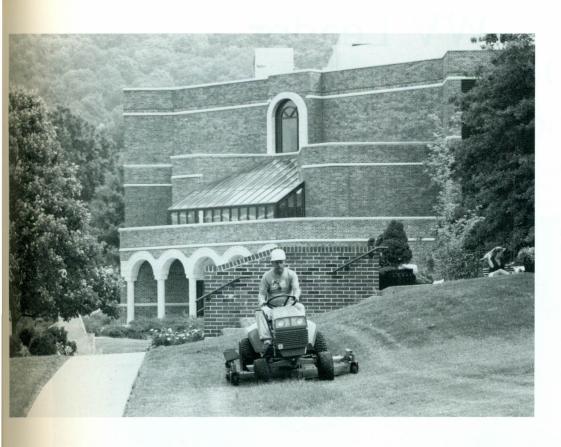

There's place and means for every man alive.

William Shakespeare

A place in the sun.

Bernhard von Bülow

WV Leader

I am their leader, I really ought to follow them!

Alexander Ledru-Rollin

Gov. Gaston Caperton

The scrupulous and the just, the noble, humane, and devoted natures; the unselfish and the intelligent may begin a movement- but it passes away from them. They are not the leaders of a revolution. They are its victims.

Joseph Conrad

WVSC Leader

No one who has not had the responsibility can really understand what it is like to be President, not even his closest aides or members of his immediate family. There is no end to the chain of responsibility that binds him, and he is never allowed to forget that he is president.

Harry S. Truman

Dr. Hazo W. Carter, Jr.

The university has become the multiversity and the nature of the presidency has followed the change . . . The president of the multiversity is leader, educator, wielder of power, he is also officeholder, seeker, persuader, bottleneck. But he is mostly a mediator.

Clark Kerr

Educated men are as much superior to uneducated men as the living are to the dead.

Aristotle

A leader has to be led; otherwise he has no business in politics.

Sophie Tucker

O Philosophy, you leader of life.

Marcus Cicero

The final test of a leader is that he lives behind the conviction and the will to carry on . . . The genius of a good leader is to leave behind him a situation which common sense, without the grace of genius, can deal with successfully.

Walter Tippins

George

Washington

For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

Prayer Bood

The apparition of these faces in the crowd; petals, on a wet, black bough.

Ezra Pound

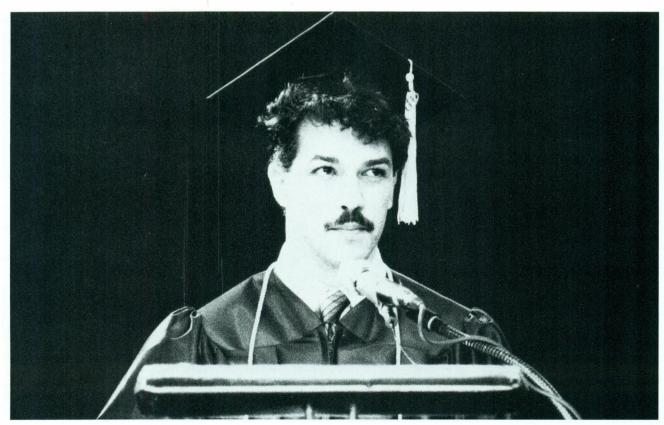

If you can talk with crowds and keep you virtue, or walk with Kings-nor lose the common touch, if neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you, if all men count with you, but none too much; if you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds worth of distance run, yours is the Earth and everything that's in it, and -which is more- you'll be a man, my son!

Rudyard Kipling

He put the coffee in the cup. He put the milk in the cup of coffee. He put the sugar in the white coffee, with the teaspoon, he stirred. He drank the white coffee and he put the cup down. Without speaking to me.

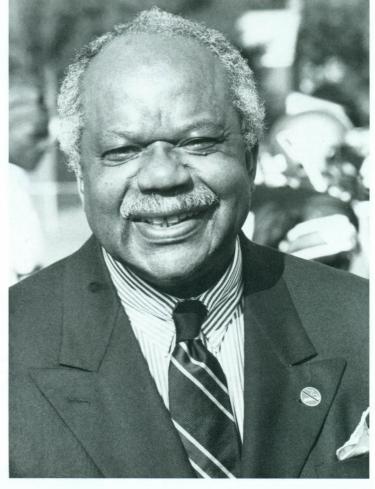

Jacques Prevert

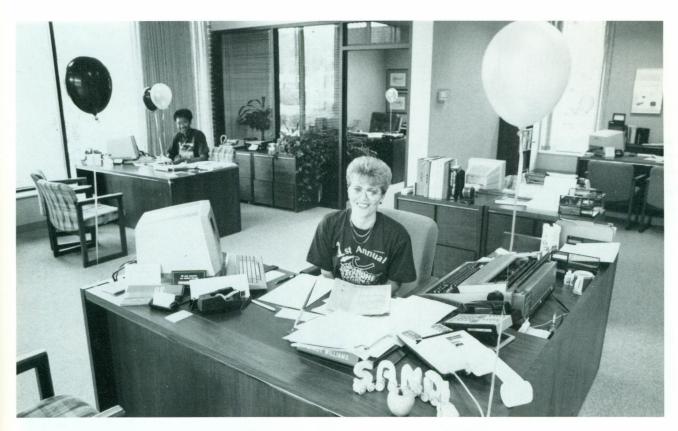

Better by far you should forget and smile than that you should remember and be sad.

Christina Rossetti

What kind of people do they think we are?

Winston Churchill

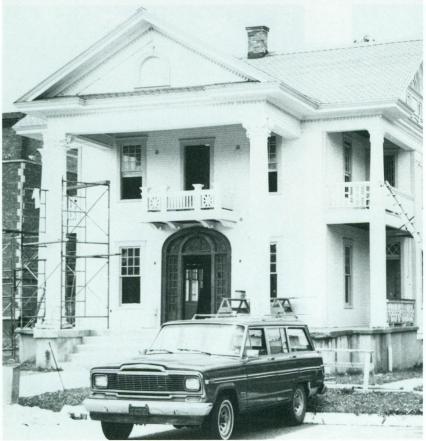

The woods decay, the woods decay and fall, The vapours weep their burthen to the ground, Man comes and tills the field and lies beneath, And after many a summer dies the swan. Me only cruel immortality consumes; I wither slowly in thine arms, Here at the quiet limit of the world.

Lord Tennyson

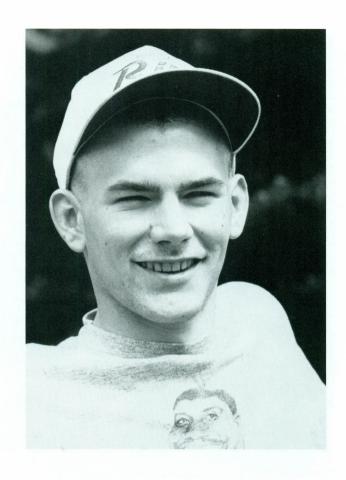

Go, little book, and wish to all flowers in the garden, meat in the hall,

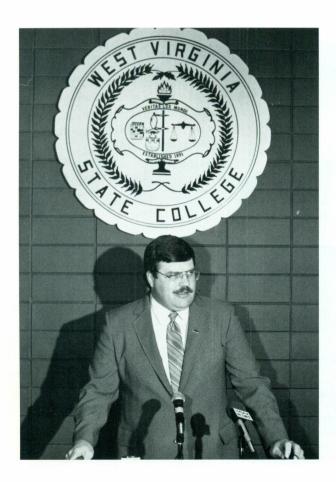

A bin of wine, a spice of wit, a house with lawns enclosing it,
A living river by the door, a nightingale in the sycamore!

Robert Louis Stevenson

It is the love of the people; it is their attachment to their government, from the sense of the deep stake they have in such a glorious institution, which gives you your army and your navy, and infuses into both that liberal obedience, without which your army would be a base rabble, and your navy nothing but rotten timber.

Edmund Burke

I am a camera with its shutter open, quite passive, recording, not thinking.

Christopher Isherwood

Elizabeth Barrett Browning

My favourite, I might say, my only study, is man.

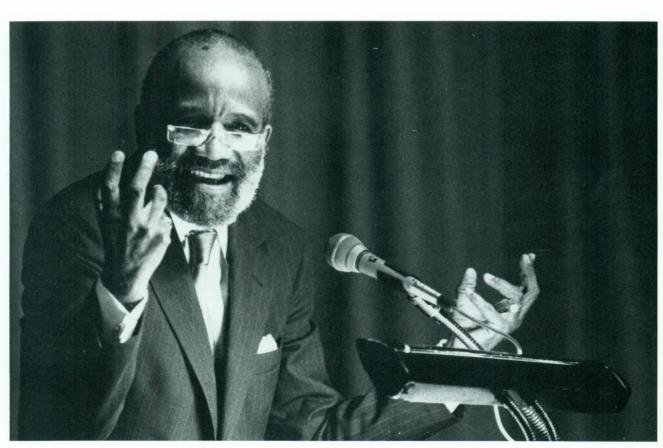

George Borrow

Beauty itself doth of itself persuade the eyes of men without an orator.

William Shakespeare

In no country perhaps in the world is the law so general a study . . . This study renders men acute, inquisitive, dexterous, prompt in attack, ready in defense, full of resources.

Ben Jonson

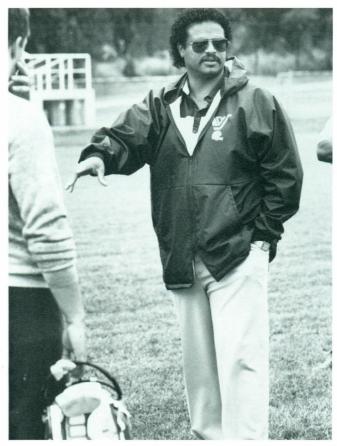

The greatest misfortune that ever befell man was the invention of printing. Printing has destroyed education . . . The essence of education is the education of the body . . . What I admire in the order to which you belong is that they do live in the air; that they excel in athletic sports; that they can only speak one language; and that they never read. This is not a complete education, but it is the highest education since the Greek.

Benjamin Disraeli

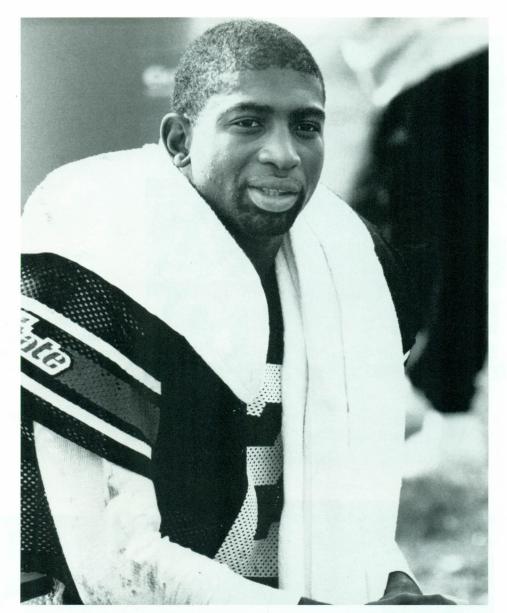

For I must go where lazy Peace will hide her drowsy head; And, for the sport of kings, increase the number of the dead.

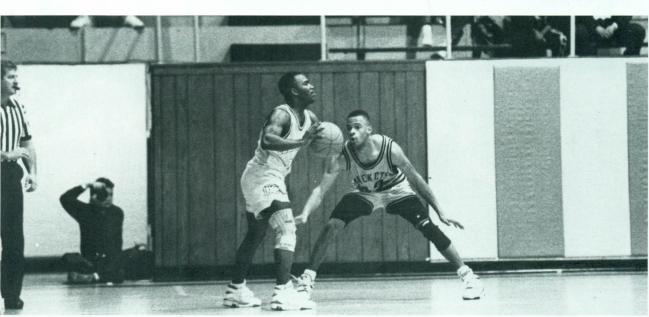

Wir William Davenant

My hoarse-sounding horn invites thee to the chase, the sport of kings; Image of war, without its guilt.

William Somerville

Sir John Betjeman

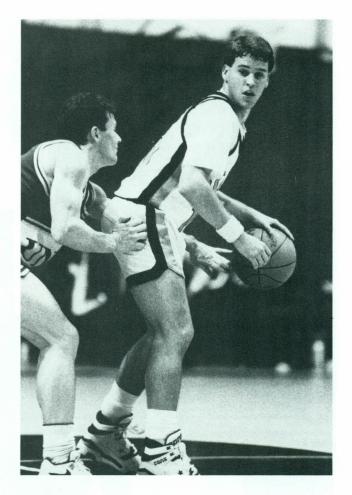

'Unting is all that's worth living for-all time is lost wot is not spent in 'unting-it is like the hair we breathe-if we have it not we die-it's the sport of kings, the image of war without its guilt, and only five-and-twenty per cent of its danger.

R.S. Surtees

Lord, lift thou up: the light of thy countenance upon us.

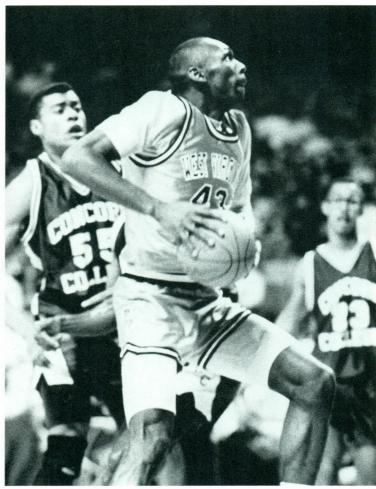

Prayer Book

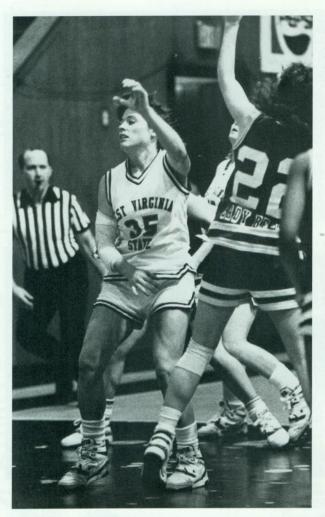

Oh, lift me as a wave, a leaf, a cloud!
I fall upon the thorns of life! I bleed!
A heavy weight of hours has chained and bowed
One too like thee; tameless, and swift, and proud.

Percy Shelley

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory shall come in. Who is the King of glory: it is the Lord strong and mighty, even the Lord mighty in battle.

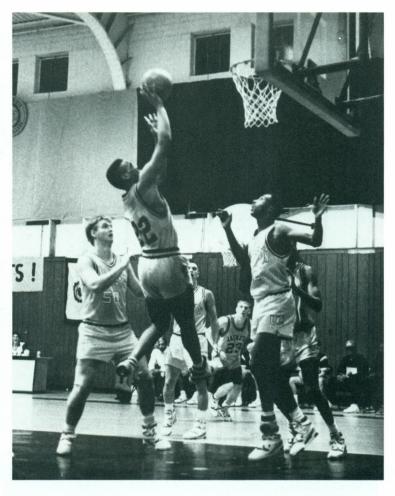

Prayer Book

And now she's trying all she can, to shoot the sleepy, green-coat man.

Heinrich Hoffmann

Time goes, you say? Ah no! Alas, Time stays, we go. Henry Austin Dobson

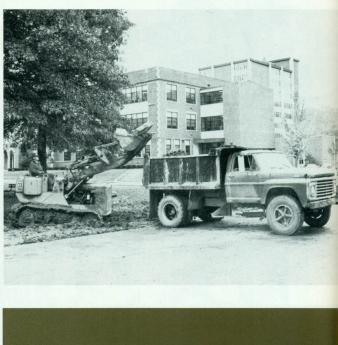

Patience is a virtue.

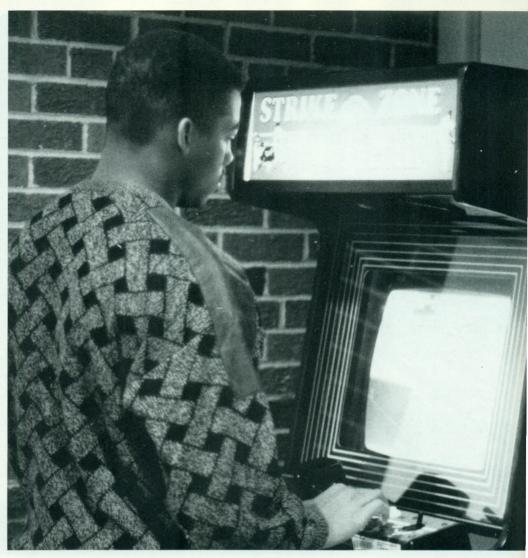

In dreams begin responsibilities. William Butler Yeats

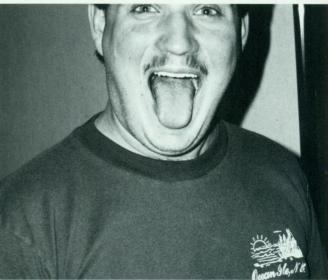

If you don't say anything, you won't be called on to repeat it. Calvin Coolidge

That is happiness; to be dissolved into something complete and great.
Willa Cather

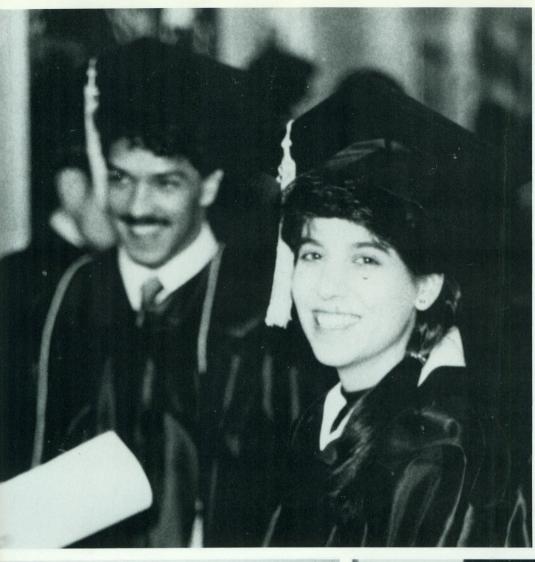

Truth is on the march and nothing can stop it.
Emile Zola

Heroism, the Caucasian mountaineers say, is endurance for one moment more.

George Keenan

Think where man's glory most begins and ends, And say my glory was I had such friends. William Butler Yeats

Immortality is not a gift, Immortality is an achievement; And only those who strive mightily Shall possess it. Edgar Lee Masters

The history of any country begins in the heart of a man or a woman.
Willa Cather

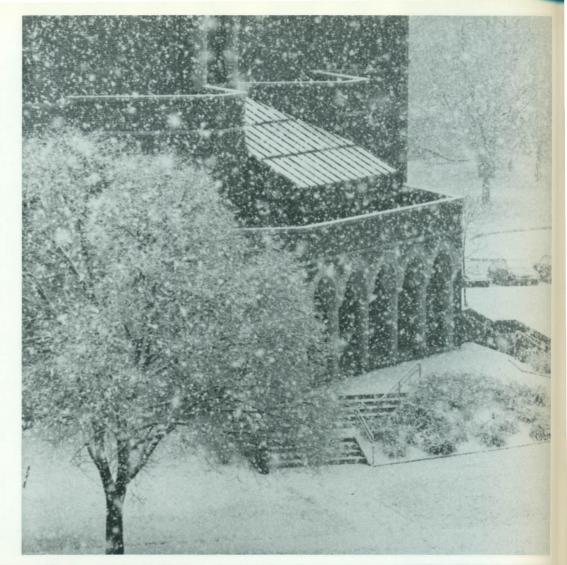

Never give in, never, never, never, never, never-in nothing, great or small, large or petty-never given in except to convictions of honor and good sense.

Sir Winston Churchill

Child! do not throw this book about; Refrain from the unholy pleasure Of cutting all the pictures out! Preserve it as your chiefest treasure Hilaire Belloz

Quit worrying about your health, it'll go away. Robert Orben
