Center Dedicated

The center to promote progress and programming in race relations, interfaith relationships and domestic relations was dedicated on October 9, 1998. The purpose of the center is to work, teach and learn in an environment realistically reflecting America. WVSC has the most racially diverse faculty, and students of any higher education institution in West Virginia. The hope was to develop a program that could be used as a model across the nation.

Dedication was held for the National Center for Human Relations.

President Carter addressed the dedication participants.

Charlene Byrd was acting director of WVSC's Center for Human Relations.

STUDENT AFFAIRS STAFF HAS ANNUAL EXPERIENCE

AFRICAN DANCE GIVES STAFF A BREAK

Student Affairs employees yearly enjoyed a day away from their typical work stations. At that time, they received recognition for their efforts as well as valuable information concerning health, exercise, etc.

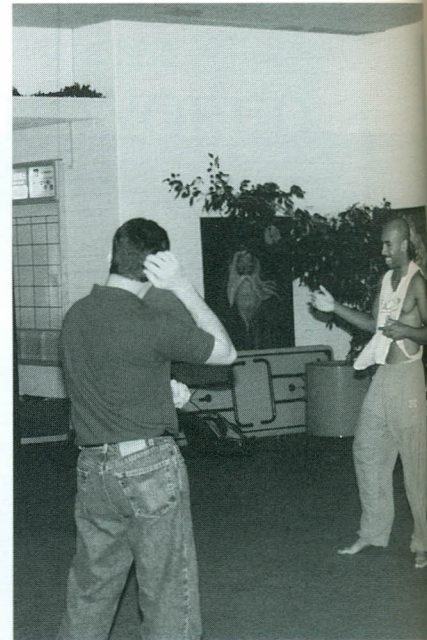

Although some were not enthusiastic about learning African Dance, they found themselves enjoying their "lesson" in African Dance from John Robertson and an aerobics session.

Vice President Ervin Griffin gave awards of appreciation for outstanding service to West Virginia State College. Medals of honor were also given to all who participated.

After valuable health and relaxation tips, aerobics, dance instruction, awards and a luncheon, all participants, wearing their medals, posed for a group photo.

The demo for African Dance began.

Orlando Lewis and Wanda Cox posed with the award.

Unfamiliar positions were the norm.

Orlando Lewis gave Mary Blizzard's Financial Aid Award.

Kelly Dunlap (counselor) and Jennie Fertig were all smiles.

Participants proudly displayed their medals.

Barbara Cary accepted Upward Bound's Award.

Participants attained proper positions.

Food Service was also awarded for service.

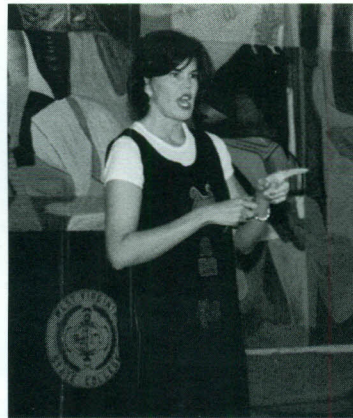

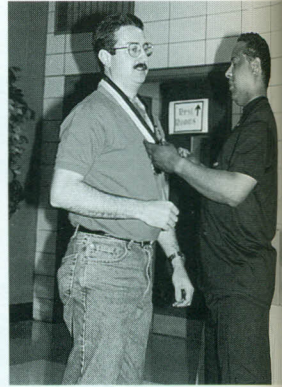

Dr. Griffin participated also.

Dr. Griffin recognized Dr. Telford's contributions of scholarship monies.

Shearn Robinson was recognized as Residence Hall Director.

Admissions Gloria Johnson and Alice Ruhnke were also included.

Head Football Coach, Carl Lee

In his third season as head coach of the Yellow Jacket football team, Carl Lee displayed an energetic and enthusiastic approach.

A 1979 graduate of nearby South Charleston HS, Lee was an all-state performer for the Black Eagles. He went from there to Marshall University, where he was an outstanding cornerback under then head coach Sonny Randle and defensive coach and present MU mentor Bob Pruett. For his performances on the Herd gridiron, Lee is a member of both the Marshall University Athletic Hall of Fame and the All-Time Southern Conference Football team.

Following graduation from MU in 1983 with a bachelor of science degree, Lee was selected to play in the National Football League by the Minnesota Vikings and called the NFL home for the next eleven seasons.

Best remembered as a star cornerback for the Vikings under Bud Grant and Dennis Green, he played his final season as a member of the New Orleans Saints. Three times during his illustrious career he was tabbed as an All-Pro and played in the Pro-Bowl in Hawaii. In probably his best overall season, Lee was named the 1988 National Football Conference (NFC) Defensive Back of the Year and also chosen as a member of popular television analyst John Madden's All-Madden team.

Lee has used his high visibility and recognized face and name to help several volunteer and charitable service organizations usually involving youth. He founded "Against All Odds", an organization for disadvantaged youth, and conducted many youth-oriented camps and programs. He is an active member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Big Brother/Big Sister of Charleston and Huntington, the DARE programs, and three Carl Lee All-Pro Football Camps.

1998 Women's Volleyball

Denise Dietrich served her 3rd year as volleyball coach, following a year of 11 victories.

Dietrich commented, "It is amazing how far we have come since my first year. This is my deepest squad but we are still lacking the size necessary to become one of the conference's elite programs."

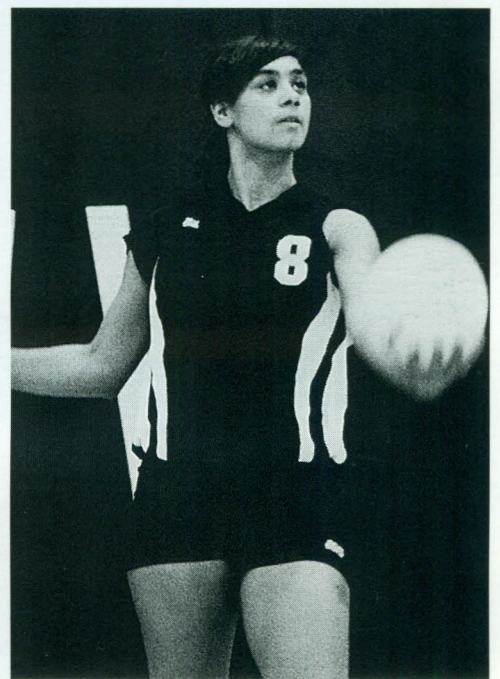

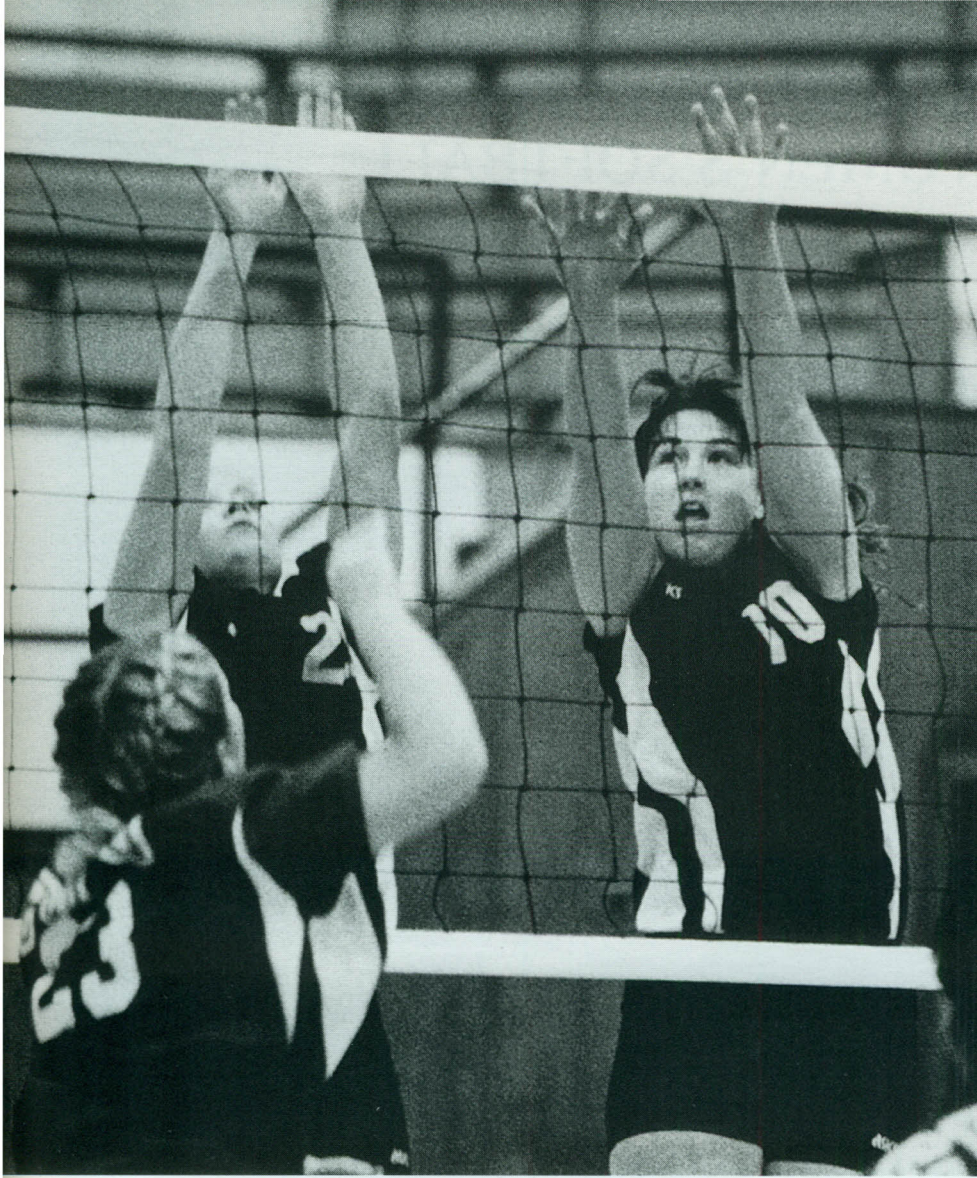

Top returnee Julie Frazee (sr) was joined by returning starters Becky Tompa (jr), Terri Burdette (so), Dawn Presley (so) and Chrissy McNeal (so).

WOMEN'S SOFTBALL

1999 was season number four for Denise Dietrich as the head softball coach on the Institute campus of WVSC.

Dietrich had 13 returnees from her 1998 squad and added three outstanding recruits. Topping the list of returnees were several of the WVIAC's top players in slugging senior shortstop/pitcher Amanda Ball, three-year starting center-fielder and leadoff hitter Kaci Landers, and junior third sacker Becky Tompa. Other veteran performers were sophomore pitcher/outfielder Kelly Allen, two-year starter at second base Diane Davis, backup catcher Regina Davis, senior catcher/designated hitter Jennifer Eva, senior starting outfielder Julie Frazee, junior left handed fireballer Becky Hunt, sophomore signal-caller Anna Kessell, reserve sophomore 3B/1B Chrissy McNeal, sophomore outfielder Dawn Presley and sophomore 2B/OF Ivy Ortman.

JC transfer Sherry DePhillip was joined by Deanna Booth and Heather Allen.

WVSC WOMEN'S TRACK

Men's Tennis

Three returning players gave Coach Sean McAndrews a start on building a tennis program.

Alex Beltrao (JR), Rob Roth (SR), and David Burger (JR) were a strong trio for the 1999 team.

Other team members were Patrick Strickland (SR), Brett Beamesderfer (SR), William Lytton (JR), and Neill Shepherd (SO).

NCAA DIV. II WORLD SERIES

In their first trip to the national tournament, the Yellow Jackets compiled a 3-2 record. Coach Cal Bailey reflected, "We've proven we can play at that level."

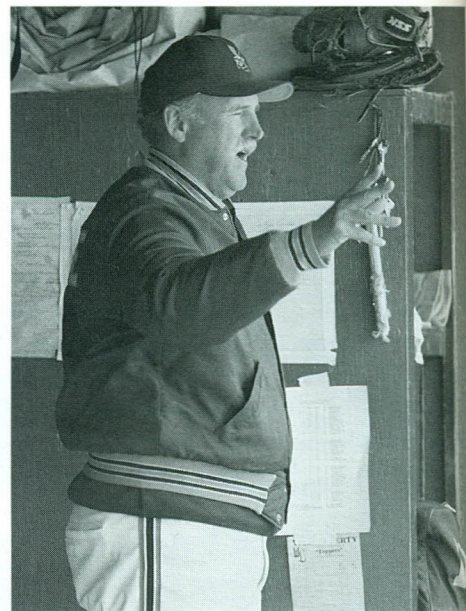

The Jackets this season finished with a 36-11 record, which included a 13-game winning streak.

Seniors on the roster were infielder Joe Payne, outfielders John Brouse and Justin Graham, catcher Keith Fout and pitchers Trevor Sansom, Jason Taylor, Nathan Carpenter, Justin Frashier, Brad Estep and Brian Barrett.

"One thing I do know is what it takes to play at that level," said Bailey. "It takes a certain amount of self-control emotionally and physically."

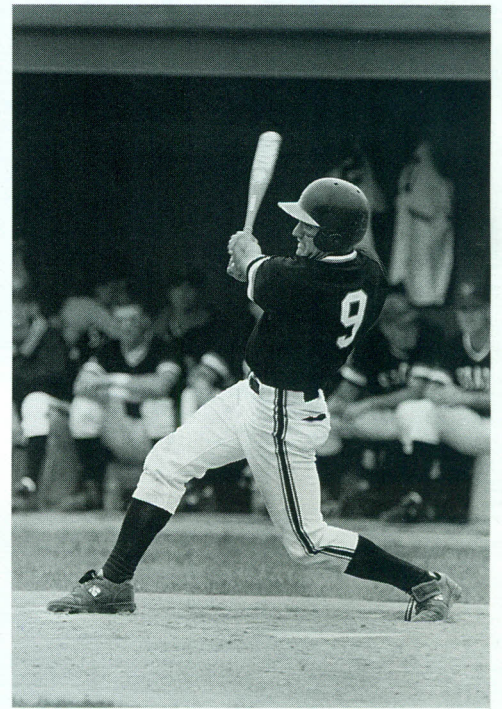

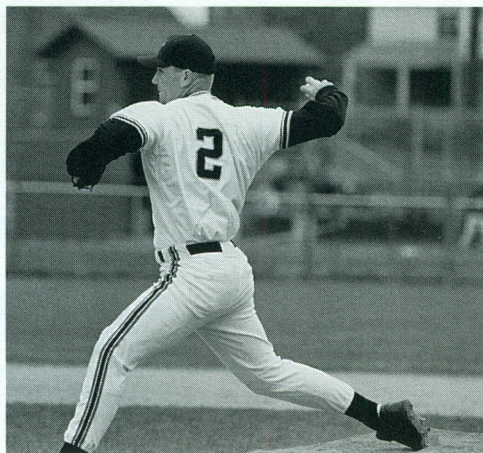

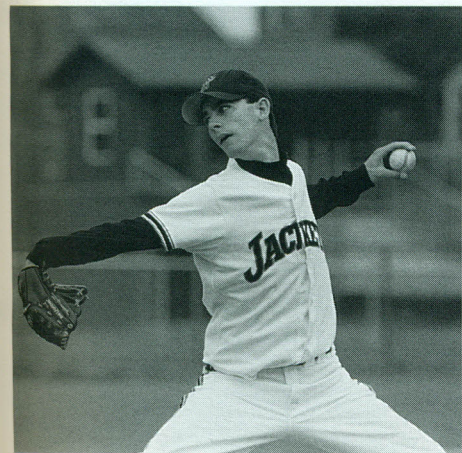

Coach Bailey affirmed, "We can battle and we proved it," as he returned to Yeager Airport.

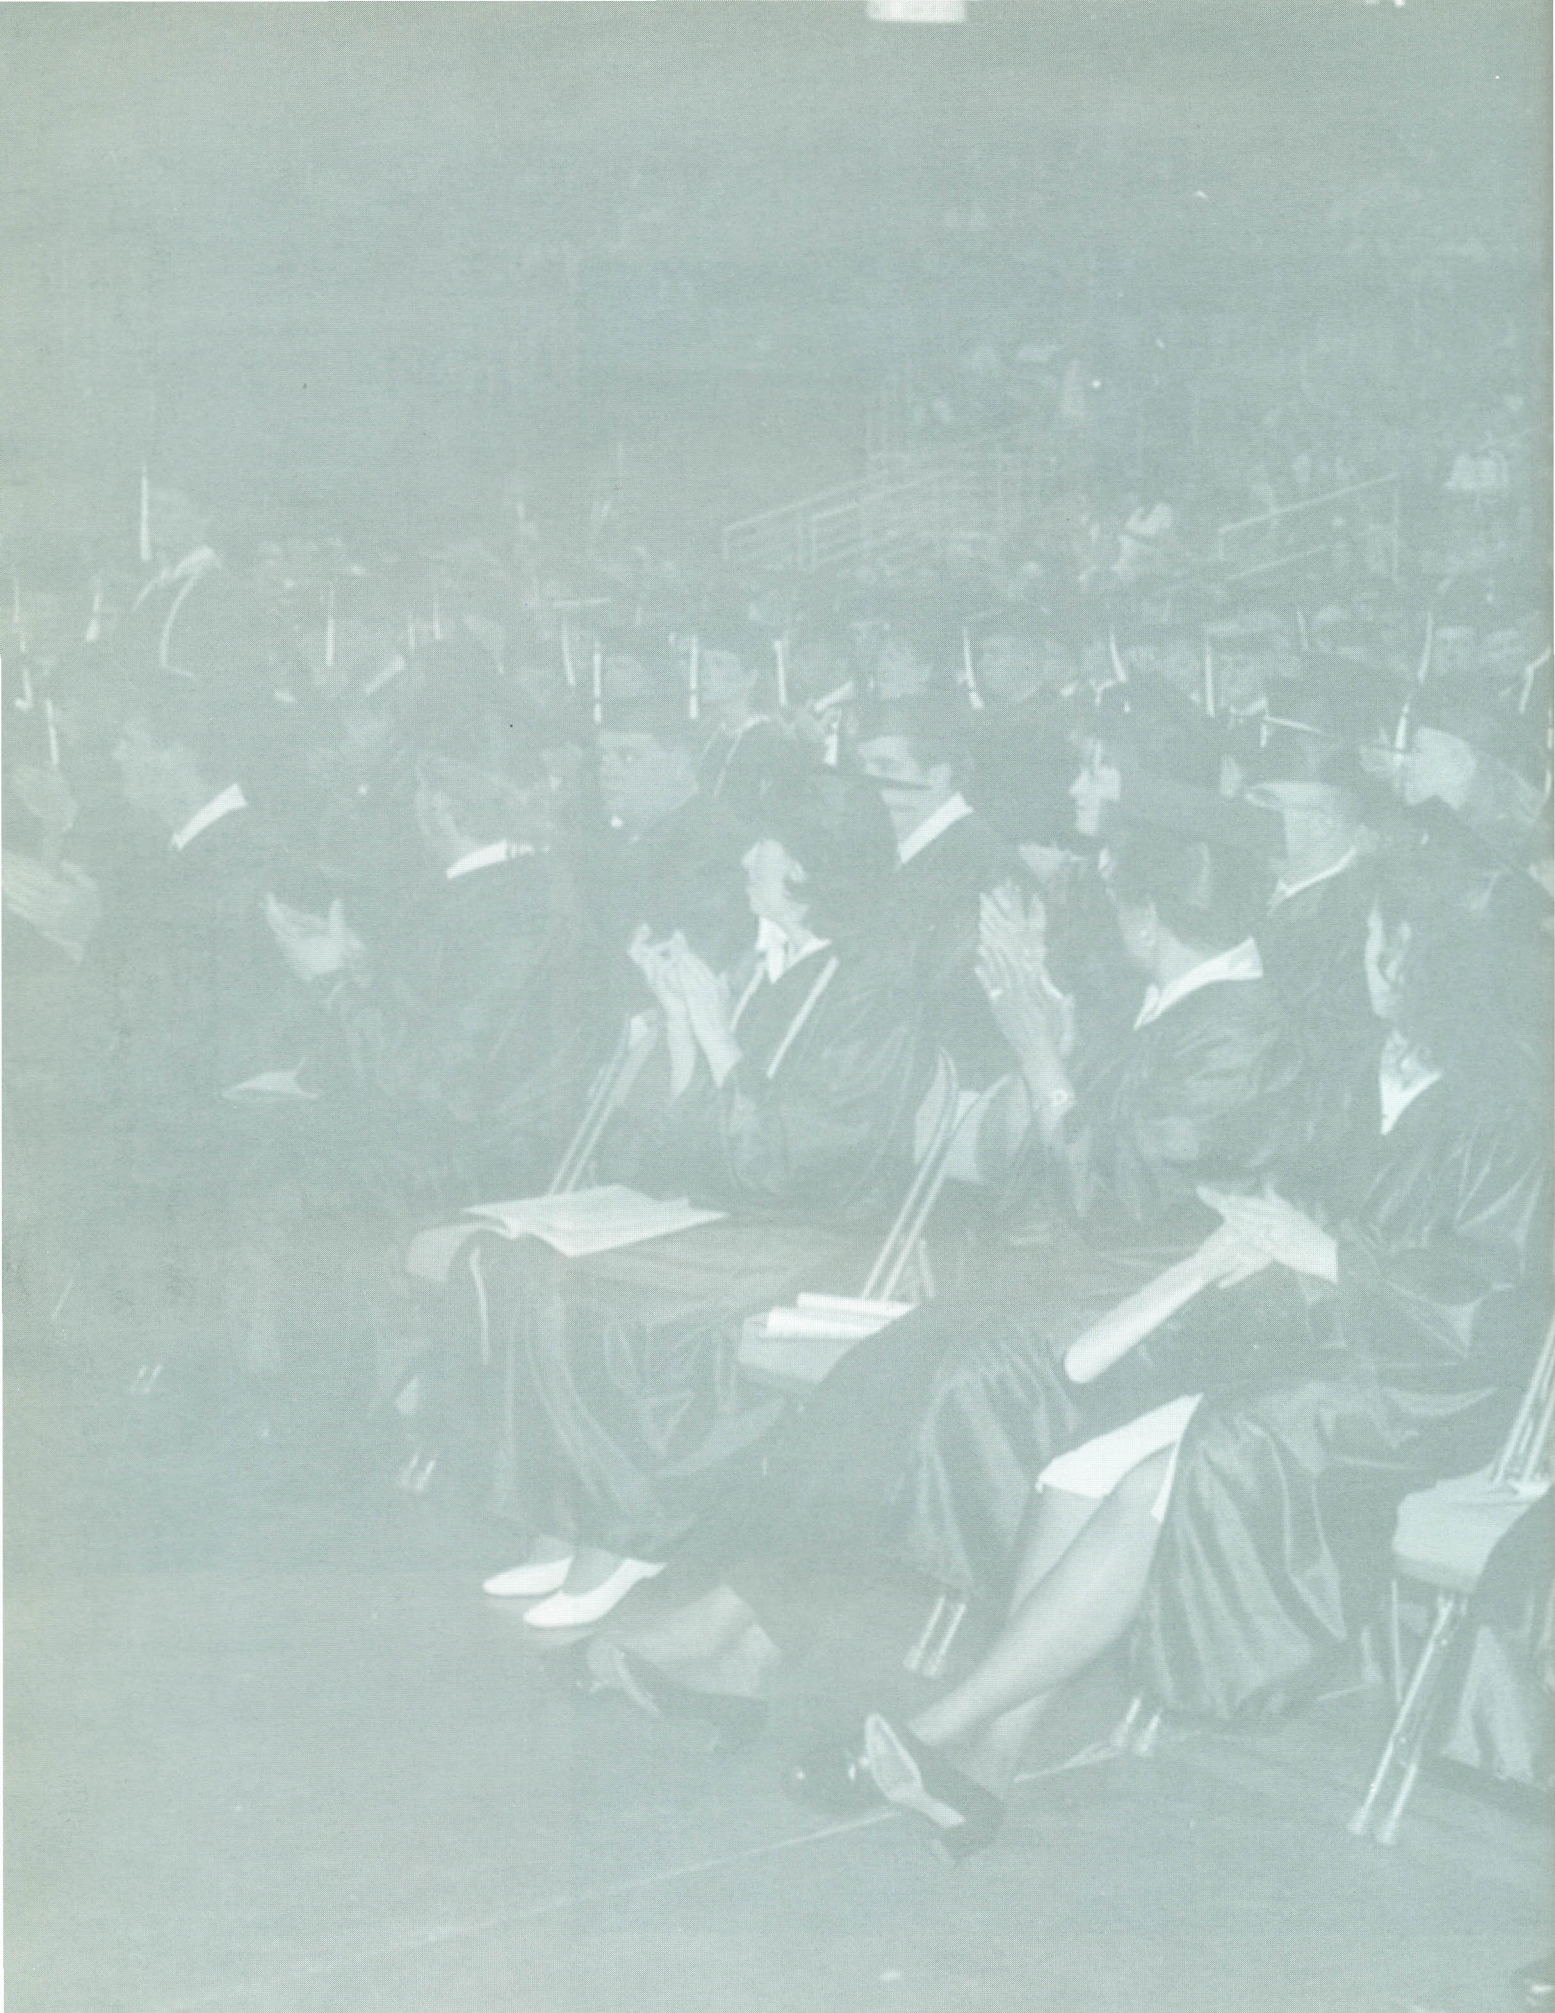

Coach Cal Bailey was later named NCAA Div. II N. Atlantic Region Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Assn./Diamond Sports Co.
