School of Month August 2005

During the month of August, The Tom Joyner Morning Show, which is heard in 115 markets reaching approximately 8 million listeners, featured West Virginia State University.

During the month of August, donations received by the Foundation, from corporate sponsorships and individual financial contributions from alumni and friends, were used to provide scholarships for deserving students in order that they may continue their education. The scholarships are based on financial need and other requirements.

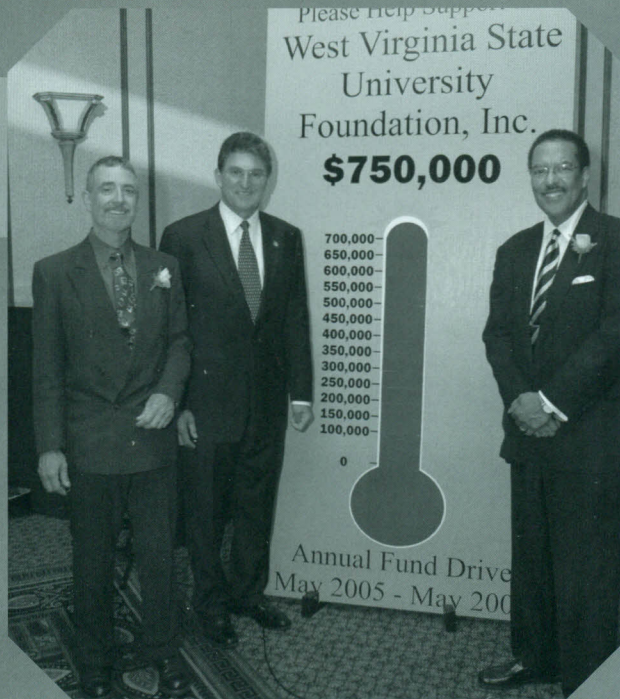

Since 1998, The Tom Joyner Foundation financially assisted students at Historically Black Colleges and Universities, increasing scholarship funds by an average of $200,000 per school. Each year, the Foundation selects approximately twelve institutions to sponsor for this endeavor.

WVSU Foundation Annual Dinner

The 2006 Annual Dinner was truly an "Inspiring Evening" when Robin Baldwin, WVSU Foundation's Vice President of Marketing, welcomed approximately 200 guests and honorees to The West Virginia State University Foundation's 29th Annual Dinner on Thursday, May 25, 2006 at the Embassy Suites Hotel in Charleston, West Virginia.

The Foundation honored two of our distinguished alumni, Governor Joe Manchin III, who received an honorary Doctorate of Laws Degree in December 2005, and Dr. Reginald Lee, renowned dentist, class of 1950. There were two outstanding student speakers, who were recipients of WVSU Scholarships, Mr. Mavery Davis and Ms. Meagan Estep. The annual dinner is the culmination of the year's fundraising efforts for the Foundation. Collectively, the Foundation raised $850,000 - $100,000 over the 2005-2006 goal of $750,000. Next year, the goal is to raise over $1,000,000.

The Foundation operates under a Board of Directors composed of outstanding and influential business leaders, alumni, and members of the University staff. Foundation fund raising is for the purpose of creating, maintaining, and perpetuating financial resources at a level guaranteed to ensure quality education at West Virginia State University and West Virginia State Community and Technical College. With the goal of improving the quality of our student's lives, as well as the quality of life for West Virginia's citizens, we forge mutually beneficial relationships with other institutions, businesses, cultural organizations, governmental agencies, and agricultural and extension partners.

*Thomas Joyner, Sr.
Commencement Address*

“Help others first, and you will be rewarded with love, respect, and good old hugs.”

On Sunday, May 21, 2006, West Virginia State celebrated its 147th graduation as graduates accepted their diplomas and took first steps toward their next great adventure. The joint ceremony with the West Virginia State Community and Technical College was held at the Charleston Civic Center with over 363 graduates accepting 99 associate degrees, 235 bachelor's degrees and 10 master's degrees. Keynote speaker for the event was Tom Joyner, a nationally syndicated radio broadcaster and higher education fundraiser. Joyner is the founder and chairman of the Thomas Joyner Foundation, which raises and disburses scholarship cash for students at historically black universities. Mr. Joyner also delivered a scholarship check for $140,900 to West Virginia State University President, Hazo W. Carter, Jr. as part of the ceremony. Joyner emphasized that helping others first is the key to reaping great rewards in life. He urged the graduates to choose careers that serve others while avoiding work that makes them unhappy.

The Alma Mater

Ernest Wade '30

Martha Spencer '31

There is a place we love so dear-
Its name we'll ever praise and revere
'Tis West Virginia State we love-
Just one more step from there is Heav'n above.

REFRAIN

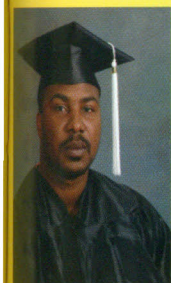

West Virginia's praise we'll sing-
Lift our voices 'til heavens ring-
As we gaily march along-
We'll sing a song-
For Alma Mater
How we love her
Pride of all our loyal hearts-
From her we will never part-
Thoughts of thee will ne'er be few
Alma Mater we love you.

We'll love her more as days go by,
And send her praises to the sky;
To place her over all the rest,
And keep her e'er the dearest and the best.

Shadowed 'neath a deep blue sky
Is STATE for whom we'll live and we'll die-
Arise! O men of God and sing;
We're loyal, and to her we'll always cling.

de·fine yourself self)

In the first year you were young and confused. In the second year you were jaded. By the third year, you were wiser and could see the future. After four years, you developed your identity through your interests, personality and the general way that you liked to do things. The obsession with individuality struck harder than ever as the true millenium arrived and the internet-computer generation began to struggle for recognition. You worked, studied, had fun, did anything that would give you identity that would inevitably carry you through the rest of your educational career, maybe farther. But it all began here in a school full of individuals defining themselves.

The WVSU Baseball team had a tremendous season. The team fell just short of the anticipated Division II World Series berth. The team finished the season with an overall record of 45-10-1 and carried a #1 regional ranking heading into the playoffs. The season also highlighted a career milestone for Coach Cal Bailey as he surpassed the 800 win mark. Coach Bailey is only the 17th coach in NCAA Division to reach the mark.

Junior Jeff Miller, the fifth leading hitter in the nation, was picked as the regional Player of the Year. Other WVSU players selected for the All Region First Team are Ryan Taylor, Kyle Jones, Brandon Halstead, and Zach Baldwin. Taylor and Baldwin are repeat picks from last season.

Dr. Howard Lee Wilson Class of 1955

new head Football coach

The suspense ended on May 18. The local media and campus community speculated about who would be the Yellow Jacket football coach. At a news conference, West Virginia State introduced Earl Monroe as the new head football coach. Monroe was a longtime defensive coordinator for the Yellow Jackets and played linebacker for the WV Rockets. The Georgia native earned his degree from "State."

On making the announcement, Dr. Gregory Epps, Special Assistant to the President and chair of the football coach search committee, explained that an extensive nationwide search had been conducted to fill the position vacated by Lee. More than 110 resumes were screened and interviews conducted. The pool was narrowed to 10 candidates and then to three names that were recommended to President Carter, who made the final decision. Some of the criteria for the selection included: successful coaching experience; commitment to academic priorities; and a strong commitment of recruiting and retaining student athletes of good character and talent.

Coach Monroe stated in an interview given to the Charleston Gazette, "We'll recruit all over the country, but we need to increase our fan base, and the quickest way to increase our fan base is to recruit local players. We're going to try to make it appealing to those guys who want to come here. Certainly, we have to start winning football games and make it appealing to those guys. We've signed several West Virginia kids this off-season." In addition, Monroe was especially thankful for the overwhelming support he received from the WVSU community. "It's just overwhelming. On campus, they had petitions. It's been humbling, and I appreciate all the support."

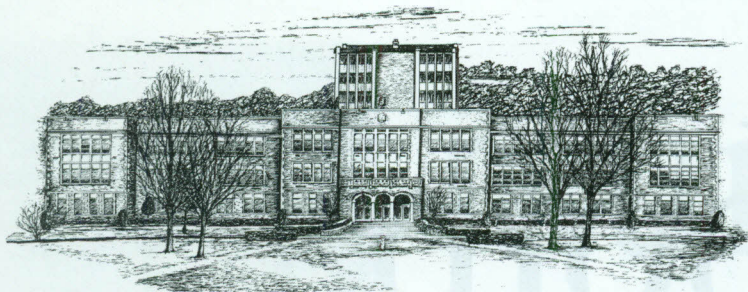

A selection committee interviewed six finalists for the position. WVSU President Hazo W. Carter, Jr. ultimately determined Coach Monroe as the best candidate for the position. He hired Clifford "Kip" Shaw, a former "State" player and head coach at Clarksburg Notre Dame High School, as offensive coordinator. William King, former Capital High and Marshall University standout, will take over Monroe's duties as defensive coordinator. He states, "It's going to be turned around. There's no question about it. There's no alternative but to win football games and graduate athletes."
